

Vision-Destiny 2018 – 06

Session 06

Share revelation from 2017

What has God said and what has God revealed? – Conversations and Visionary encounters relevant for 2018

What is the application for me the church here and for the wider church?

- To live loved is to rediscover my true identity as a son in relationship with a loving heavenly Father.
- Agape love leads me to rest and remember his image and likeness redeemed in us.

- To love living is to express the joy of life from the place of rest to engage creation in sonship
- To live loving is to express the peace found in relationship as a son in and through and to everything to bring restoration.

Wisdom's heights

I seek for revelation of how to set God's children free from the bondage of the veils of deception covering their minds in the lies of the pathway of the DIY tree that Adam led mankind down.

- Come to the court of judges they are like the Supreme Court that decides the validity of actions that can be administrated in the other courts.

I stand before the judges as an ambassador for the Joshua Generation I present my plea for mercy and I ask that extreme measures be authorised.

I present the evidence of the wilderness and the valley of decision.

I present my evidence of the lack of readiness for the harvest and the lack of new order Ekklesia and Embassies of heaven.

I ask for the authority to present My case before the 70 and to establish new legislation and to use existing legislation more effectively.

We hereby grant your plea for mercy and authorise you to increase the intensity of action.

When the 70 meet for mercy you may present your plea before them.

- I received a scroll with a mandate for extreme measures.
- I call for disruptions to the affairs of men within the religious systems.
- I call for legions of messengers the truth and light bearers to infiltrate the covering systems.

- I call for love bombs of heaven to be released upon the revolutionaries to explode within the minds of the discontented.

- I call for the next wave of forerunners to be targeted with mind quakes with extreme prejudice.
  - I call for love the essence of the precepts of God to explode in the experiences of those wavering between 2 opinions.
  - I call for visions, dreams and open heaven encounters to propel the next wave beyond the veil.
  - I call for the gathering angels to be released to remove the stumbling blocks and hindrances from the next wave of forerunners.
  - I release the blue light into the wilderness and valley of decision to carry the frequency of revolution to apprehend the next wave.
  - I call for the blueprints for the foundations of the new order Ekklesia who will become Embassies of heaven to be made ready.
- Son I am that I am in unveiled truth to open the eyes of the blind so that they can be the mirror image of My desire and heart as sons of the living God.
- I am Father, Son and Spirit the author and the completer of all that was is and will be good expressed in love.

Love that is stronger than death where all that is unseen will become visible once again.

Love that has overcome sin, death and separation with an inclusiveness that will not relent or fail to accomplish all that has been proposed for relationship to be fulfilled.

- Son what I am about to show you is for your eyes only for now.

Walk with Me and sit with Me look at the world through this time space continuum see how it had become disconnected attached only by the quantum field.

- Son see the first estate birthed in love's fresh hope the fruit of the deepest desire of My heart.
- Fallen, fallen so far and yet in hope waiting expectantly for the seed to fall into the ground and die to release its life into the very earth.

Son feel My heart and desire for restoration that heart cry is what you have been drawn to engage.

- Feel the desire for sons to arise out of the fallen seed as it springs forth with fruitfulness from the earth that swallowed it up.
- Son the rising up of sons restored to their first estate positions will become the key to the wonders that are about to unfold.
- The heritage of the earth that has been increasing in number until the fullness of time has come will be unleashed as a storm cloud.

Son what do you see?

Father I see a dark cloud about to cover the earth like a plague of locusts the very army of Joel.

The darkness before the breaking of dawn like the culmination of justice where the prison of the depths will be devastated by the bold and courageous who have been touched by love's passion.

I see the plundering of the depths by love's army whose eyes have been restored to see the truth of who I am and who they are.

I see the rising of the unrestricted warriors free from the religions doctrinal chains that has blinded them from their own destiny and from the true power of love.

The love that would climb every mountain that would run through the hottest desert that would brave the deepest darkest depths that would walk every path though the fire and the rain to restore relationship.

I see the fire walkers those who have been willing to embrace the altar and carry its impression on their being.

I see them gathering coming out of the wildernesses that have held them captive for so long to face the fiery sword of judgement that all must go through to be restored to the thrones of the realms of heaven.

- I see the consuming fire of love overcoming all in its path and those who have been touched by fire coming out of the crucibles to willingly go into the flames with marks of the coals on their hearts proclaiming freedom to captives and release to the prisoners with a passion stronger than death.
- I see the storm clouds gathering to blanket the earth as the restored cloud of witnesses those who have been refined by the unrelenting fire of love.

Son behold I will come on a white horse with fire in My eyes and a sword in My mouth to lose the bonds of wickedness to let the oppressed go free

Son you are co-included in everything by design and all that was lost has now been restored in your redeemed innocence.

- I have co-included you in the death burial resurrection and ascension of Jesus who is the first fruits of abundant life and you have been sealed and guaranteed by My Spirit for your full inheritance in relationship restored.

Son breathe deeply expand your capacity be filled with the essence of life itself and exhale that love to release a creative expression of heaven's living letters in the reality you choose that reflects My heart.

Son explore and experience all that you are included in as My son.

Inclusion is your inheritance the fullness of your image and design was to be within the circle of the great dance.

- Son mankind made up of every one of My children was always destined to be included.
- There was never even a fleeting thought of exclusion and it was never My decision to be separated but yours.

Mankind in Adam chose independence but I never left you it was only in your fallen mind-sets that you are not in Me.

- I never stopped loving you all and I never turned away from you and I always had the plan prepared to redeem your fallen minds and restore all things.
- Son embrace the fullness of your restored image as you look into My face and see the love that is in My eyes for the whole of creation.
- I call for the return of the prodigals all who have been stolen and robbed from us.

- I release the angelic legions to gather and return those destined to be with us
- I release the sound of freedom into the atmosphere to reverberate and announce amnesty
- I call for the restoration of broken relationships and broken dreams
- I call for intrusions of dreams visions and encounters to turn the hearts of independent children back to their Father.
- I release the lightning bolts of heaven to penetrate the coverings of guilt shame and condemnation.
- I release the love bombs of heaven to capture the hearts of those who have lost their identity
- I call for the return of those living stones that are needed to complete the house
- I choose the reality where all return from the wilderness into the freedom fold
- I call for the mountains to come down and the valleys be lifted up and the crooked paths be made straight and rough paths become smooth that all obstacles and barriers be removed.
- I call for all offenses to be removed and all broken hearts and relationships to be restored.
- I call for the multitudes who have left to return home and find their places as living stones within our blueprint design

Father my desire is to see the fulfilment of the restoration of all things can you unveil the truth concerning just how far that goes?

Son deep is calling to deep so there are facets that are beyond where you have been but now deconstruction is progressing so you can have the ability to participate more fully.

As you are beginning to look into one facet of My grace and mercy towards all that I have created you will begin to go deeper and see that each facet has many layers of truth that will be revealed.

Son the eyes of your consciousness are about to be unveiled to go beyond beyond to discover the fullness of My ability to love reconcile and restore all things that I have created but you will have to facilitate the restoration or not of what you have created as mankind.

Son I created time and space within Myself but you are responsible for what has transpired within it.

The groan of creation requires sons to respond to it.

I have given you the best example of sonship to disciple you but it is still your responsibility to be

- Sons must arise and take their places and be seated in rest to rule in righteousness
- Son I am is calling for sons to arise to relationship and responsibility to respond to creations groan.

Son all will respond to mature sons seated enthroned and living loved and living loving.

Son love is the only force strong enough to overcome and restore.

Be loved and express love and let love alone be the motivation of your desire.

Only love has the power to forgive and restore.

- My love and your love together in mystic union will overcome and restore the macro and the micro into perfect harmony.

Son creation is the object of My affection and mankind is the pinnacle of creation walk with wisdom to see the aligning of the wheels within wheels within wheels to prepare for what was, is and is to come to become one unified expression of peace.

Son see the fractal patterns and you will see My heart and My mind in unified creative order.

Son the circles of the deep and the deep within the deep must be aligned that is why there are twelve ambassadors that represent the 12 ages of creation order.

- Son call to them to prepare for the shift that is coming that will fracture space time continuums to then unify all things in one
- Son who will sum up and be all in all.
- The dimensional boundaries must be removed and the gates opened for full restoration to be accomplished there can be no barriers or boundaries everything must become all in all.

Son what do you see?

I see the crumbling of the world's DIY systems in the shaking and fire of heaven's sword of judgement.

Son what you see is not My doing but is the consequence of independence and entropy.

I will bring good out of all things associated with DIY tree path but the timescales and the dimensions are according to the willingness of people to surrender their right to rule to relationship and love.

Son administrate the fall and rise of the old and new to minimise the destruction by creating a crucible for transformation where the fire operates as a catalyst.

Mobilise the legislation groups to begin the preparations for change by legislating the changes in seasons and conditions necessary to provoke the pursuit of new answers found only in the Truth.

The targets can range from key people to governments and institutions where heat will increase to create the conditions for changes to take place.

Direct fire will only be necessary where stubborn independence continues to resist the light of truth and remain operating in darkness.

- The light must shine from My people which is why the Joshua Generation must take a stand on true holy ground to become kinsman redeemers for those bound in the wilderness.

Prepare for the awl to bore into ears on the gateposts of Wisdom's heights to set apart the forerunners willing to pay the cost.

Son declare war on independence within the hearts and minds of those who will refuse to be renewed to the new relationship free from religion's doctrinal chains. The truth of the scandals of old systems that are the pillars keeping the temples in place.

- The religious law based mind-sets that reduce Me to the distant angry deity must be deconstructed to enable My children to see Me and themselves in the light of truth.
- Son the pen is a mighty sword that you must continue to use in all its mediums to reveal the truth of the war for minds that is going on.
- Son go from search light to laser pen and focus your intensity on what is written to the new verses old series.

The old does not have to collapse it can be dismantled and you have been given the task to shake the foundations of the old to create voluntary deconstruction.

Son I am far more than you can imagine or think that is why I am constantly expanding your mind and your consciousness.
Deep is continually calling to deep to restore your experience of Me to your conscious mind.

Son all your encounters are designed to restore relationship with Me to reveal who you really and truly are as My son.

Following your own path has distorted how you see Me and therefore distorted how you see yourself.

I am deconstructing this distorted image that DIY religion has constructed through its false doctrines and idolatry.

All religion worships the good of its own making constructed from the lies and illusions of fear.

I am that I am is pure love in action, pure light displayed and pure spirit unconnected to any image or idol of human design.

Son don't hold back from expressing the fullness of the overflowing lavish abundance of My love that you have just begun to taste and see is good. The drops of revelation that have splashed onto you from above are the forerunners foretaste of the torrent that will cascade over you beyond the most powerful waterfall.

- Son let Me drench you with love's flood be immersed soaked and filled to overflowing with who I am.
- I am that I am so you can be who you are as a fully mature son of the most high the living God, Father, Son and Spirit.

I stand under the waterfall in the Father's garden the full representation of the inexhaustible supply of the Father's heart deep to deep.
Love unlimited and limitless a never ending flow of life in its fullness and effulgence.
Amazing love how can it be that you My love would die to reveal the truth to me.

Overwhelmed, undone and yet totally inspired by love's degree.
Father Your love for me in all its glorious resplendent height, depth, length and breadth; multidimensional beyond time and space unbounded, unlimited is Your love for Your Son and all your sons.

Love that is stronger than death and the grave burning with passion and desire that will not relent until it is known by all.
The love I see in Your eyes hanging there on that cross for all mankind.
Your eyes the window into the depths of Your heart of love fully expressed, fully manifested and fully realised in You dying my death.

Hanging there unlimited by the constraints of time or space unveiling and fully revealing Your divine nature for all to see and for all to embrace on earth, in the heavens and under the earth.
Your love prevails victorious removing every veil overcoming every distortion, obstacle, argument, lie and deception

- As I lie down in green pastures with the shepherd of my soul I rest in His love.
- A love that knows no boundaries that will stop at no obstacles a love stronger than even death which is now no barrier.
- I find rest for my soul as I rest in what my shepherd has already accomplished for me and my soul finds restoration is outworked in union as a consequence of intimacy.

The closer I get the deeper my knowledge through experience becomes and the more I change and am transformed into the truth that I rest in.

My whole being rests in the peace of mystic union of shepherd and sheep together yoked in oneness.

My mind being renewed by truth in this union of minds becoming one mind with the mind of Christ.

My conscience cleansed by the washing of the living water of the living word who whispers gently to me.

My imagination purified by the truth of my identity free from its limitations and restrictions activated to the endless possibilities that my consciousness now envisaged.

My reasoning's filled with unfettered undistorted thoughts flowing from the conversations of heart to heart cardio gnosis facilitated by emotions healed and restored by love's passion and desire.

- A will surrendered in abandonment to the ideas flowing from the union of coheirship where heart and purposes mingle beyond time and space free from linearity and awash with redemptive zeal.
- My choices inspired by the cosmic potential possibilities of creations restoration to completeness wholeness through perfected sonship.

I am that I am in intimacies embrace. I am my beloveds and He is mine joy overflowing in the dance of rest where I am in my garden on my dance floor in the soaking room and the bridal chamber held embraced tightly securely safe in His arms of love.

I see the beyond beyond stretching out unfurling unravelling from my place of pure rest.

What was was infiltrating imperceptivity through what is to establish what will be.

Timelines reconnecting merging into restored streams of consciousness the force of love's desire overwhelming the linear barriers of history like a tsunami or sand storm of inevitability.

The victory of the cross casting its shadow through all time and space announcing freedom and emancipation from all fallen realities.

I stood under the waterfall with the colours of the rainbow cascading down with all variations, hues, tones, shades of colour each representing a manifold facet of multi-coloured grace and love for every tongue, tribe, nation, colour, family, the lost, the lonely, the hurting, sick, everyone the rejected the rejecters, the abused and the abusers, the victims and the perpetrators of every sin ever done in the name of the DIY tree.

The immense power of God's love and grace flowing from His heart and from His throne released in its fullness from the cross encompassing everyone past present and future.

I felt the exhilarating dimensions of this love; the extremes that God will go to reach everyone the individual uniqueness of each colour

The empowerment to share this good news with each person that God is passionately in love with them and has done everything necessary to restore them. There is nothing and no one who is outside of the reach scope and power of His love grace and mercy.

Amazing love can it be? Yes Jesus died was buried resurrected and ascended for me and for the whole of the cosmos that He created and sustains in love.

Philippians 1:9 It is my desire for each one of you, that the realization of love's completeness in you will increasingly burst through all boundaries, and that every sphere of your relationship with others will be greatly impacted by your intimate acquaintance with love.

The word love agape is a compound word from the meaning to lead as a shepherd leads his sheep, and , which means rest!

His love leads me into his rest; into the full realization of his finished work!

Agape is Psalm 23 in one word. "By the waters of reflection my soul remembers who I am."

This a description of an Ekklesia fully living loved, loving living and living loving fellowshiping in love demonstrating that love to the world in desperate need of its manifold manifestation.

Son let this be your passion the driving force and desire of your life to live loved in Me in the full power of resurrection life a new Creation restored to redeemed innocence a full reflection of your sonship mirrored in Me.

Son arise and shine take your positions in the heavenly realms and bring heaven to earth with a full manifestation of My kingdom.

→ It is time for My people to radiate their glory in all the splendour and majesty of sonship that will bring about the restoration of all things.

August 8th 1975 call for billion fold harvest generation failed to prepare the storehouses and mentors like Joshua and Caleb to receive and mentor the harvest. They focused on youth and not on mentors.

The world picked up the call but as usual the church missed it building ministries in the wilderness of prophetic and apostolic dependencies and coverings rather than equipping the saints to hear God for themselves.

2015 August 8th= 888 40 years new generation

It is not about age they were from 0-59 and Joshua and Caleb were in their 80's The mantle had passed from the Moses generation who died in the wilderness to the Joshua Generation who were forerunners and crossed over into the Promised Land.

Focus on the Joshua Generation its call to cross over from the wilderness to the Promised Land.

Compare the Moses generation's mediatorial hierarchical government.
Forerunners of the new ways figuratively spying out the land beyond the veil establishing the kingdom in heaven to be outworked on the earth.
Sons taking their places or positions of governmental authority seated in the heavenlies places.
A call to intimacy restoration of Fatherhood and sonship revealing the father heart of God deep calling to deep.

Experiencing God's heart for creation to reveal sons to answer its groan. Rom 8:19
The world picked up on this ecological green movement, pass the church by.

Raising up of the mountain of the house of the Lord of Isa 2 where the hills are spheres of earthly government fail to have the answers to the world's problems in the midst of shakings.
Mountains representing spheres of governmental authority and kingdom rulership eg mount Zion = the house of God and the place of His throne.

God is calling his people out of the wilderness out from under the coverings of men to live under an open heaven just like Jacob Elijah Ezekiel Enoch Joseph Daniel Jesus Paul and John. Rev 3:20; Rev 4:1, Gen 28:18, John 14

We are a house of God and a gateway of heaven and a mountain throne.

Son be an amplifier of heaven's sound let it resonate within you and emanate from you with the added impetus of your desire.
Son cultivate your desire for the Joshua Generation feel My heart of compassion.

- Son the valley of decision is being filled and multitudes are being drawn by heaven's sound to leave the old systems of men but many have not yet embraced the new.
- Increase the volume of the call prepare and get ready to issue the challenge to the forerunners to get ready both to reach out and receive.

Send out the angelic gatherers into the highways and the byways to reach those who are out from under the coverings of men.
The sound of heaven must be focused to target specific objectives both places and people with love bombs of truth and revelation.

Son it is time to begin mobilising the ordnance of heaven to be at the ready for action.

I am releasing heaven's heavy artillery so to speak to soften up the targets with dreams and visions and encounters that will shake their beliefs and break their false loyalties to systems of religion.

Son echo My voice, release the sound that you carry.
Breathe more deeply, be filled with an increased flow and be the channel of glory, arise shine the light has come.

Son I am about to lift the covers and veils from you and your blueprint.
Prepare for the stretching of your borders first in your mind and then in your territories.

Look into the deep pools of the eyes of the Prince of Peace
Close your eyes and begin to think of Jesus and continue to look into those eyes
Let Jesus take you beyond
