

Vision-Destiny 2018 – 11

Session 11

Share revelation from 2017

What has God said and what has God revealed? – Conversations and Visionary encounters relevant for 2018

What is the application for me the church here and for the wider church?

Golden River Engagement

- Sons the golden river is a point of convergence where time and eternity meet to create a kairos moment of kainos golden opportunity.
- This is the convergence of 7 rivers of river of spirit baptisms: life, grace, mercy, love, joy, peace and fire that bring hope released through the windows of heaven cascading down like waterfalls joining here into one glorious heavenly flow
- The 7 spirits of God are here to mandate, equip, authorise, prepare, reveal and empower you for your position as a son of God
- The 7 colours of the redemptive gifts are flowing within the river to reconnect you to your redemptive destiny within the restoration of all things.
- It is an opportunity to connect to your eternal destiny and be part of a great shift.
- The river is flowing with grace and faith to restore your identity and equip you for new positions of kingdom governmental authority
- Embrace the river and bathe in it be immersed and filled with a new and fresh momentum to propel you forward towards your destiny as sons of God.

This convergence of time and eternity is designed to be a time for the fractured soul to be reintegrated and the pain of lost identity healed and wholeness restored.

This is your moment where time will be suspended for you to reconnect and restore past and present to remove all dichotomies and divergences to become whole.

This river is flowing from My heart and is filled with My glory expressed as the vast sum of My thoughts about each of you revealing the pattern of My original intention.

In this river you can see your glory the essence of your true identity your true image of eternal sonship.

- Embrace the flow so you can be transfigured in light and reconciled to eternity so that all fragments and fractures within your soul's identity can be harmoniously restored to the light, frequency and fragrance of your eternal position within creation.

- Within the flow is the sound of many waters My voice calling out your name, calling you to sonship resonate with the frequency of My heart.
- Sons hear the call of My voice and be transformed and conformed to the original image of your design, behold Me and become all you were intended to be Open heart surgery reveals 4 blocked valves in my heart.

I have a greater capacity to receive in than can flow out.
The valves are unblocked and now I can have an increased capacity.
Engaging the golden river
I first engaged Wisdom and knowledge in the spirit.

I stepped into the river at the violet end and immediately felt an increase as engaged the Spirit of the fear of the Lord.
The motives of my heart started to come into the light of glory and My destiny as I began to reconnect to my eternal identity and destiny.

I started to connect to the groan of creation with the emotions from what was, despair, despondency then I began to be filled with a new hope and a stronger passion for restoration.

I felt an overwhelming sense of compassion for the restoration of my heritage for my family lines and I immediately went to the consuming fire of God's love.
I asked Jesus to accompany me as Prince of Peace

With great boldness I began to preach the good news about restoration healing from fracturedness fragmentation, brokenness, despair, deception. I shared about the power of the cross to heal restore and make the soul whole. I introduced the Prince of Peace

I pleaded with each of my family lines in turn to respond to the gospel and accept Jesus as Lord.
I blew the silver trumpet and beckoned them follow me.
I felt hope fill the atmosphere and I walked out with multitudes following me through the fiery sword.

I was overjoyed that virtually everyone responded and then Jesus gave me a scroll with a new mandate for specific people groups those who had been deceived by religion and false hope in their search for spiritual truth.

As I stepped forward I found myself in the library of heaven but this time my soul's previously insatiable need to know was resting in trust in my Dad.

I began to absorb book after book into my spirit as a constant stream of true knowledge flooded into me.

An increased capacity to love and an increased capacity to know.

I stepped forward into the blue and was given a bigger glimpse into my role as a son in the what was before time and that strengthened me to accept the present and future roles within the restoration of all things.

I reconnected with my role as a light bearer and catalyst of reconciliation dimensionally.

The desire to see restoration between factions dimensionally began to surge within me like I was feeling a new rhythm from the Father's heart and I started to pulse with energy and focus.

I stepped forward towards green and yellow and I was filled with a new sense of purpose again stirred by a recollection of what is the intention of God's heart for peace and love thoughts of harmonious union flood my mind and my emotions.

I really started to feel the convergence of time and eternity and the kairos moment of clarity and singularity.

My tasks that have been hidden as mysteries by the Father's cloud came into view?.

I carry a sound frequency and fragrance that is designed to release the patterns and memory of was and is and will be.

The restored hope of the ages as pulses of light and truth that will inspire, stimulate and catalyse change.

I have the task to radiate the hope of recollection that will cause desire for the harmony of union.

The union of soul, spirit and body within the heart of the Father's intent reconnecting with union of earth and heaven

That intent is the spark for reconciliation and restoration of all within the seen and unseen realms and between dimensions and the races divided.

Son come and walk with Me. We walk to the waterfall and enter the cave of assignments.

We meet Enoch who hands me a scroll.

Son this is the most difficult task that you have been given so you are free to decline.

What is the task?

Son herein lies the difficulty the task can only be known after you have completed it.

Father I accept the task.

Son walk with Me. We are at the pace of beyond beyond there are 3 portals of light. The Father beckons me to step through the central portal but I hesitate.

Son this is where you get to trust Me.

Son do not be overawed by the tasks that you have been assigned for you have a willing heart that is drawing from the revelation of who you have always been.

- Discovering and rediscovering sonship is the focus of this season that is about to dawn.
- My children must reconnect to their eternal destiny to be fully equipped as mature sons.
- Son revelations are about to be revealed that will further explode the limitations of your mind and as a forerunner you will make a way for others to follow.
- Son this is not the time to shrink back as some are doing but to advance boldly and take full possession of the cosmic dimensions of your inheritance.

Just like the children of Israel of old some fought for possession of the land of promise but then settled back into old wilderness land and became under the Moses order once again.

- ▶ Son there are those who started out as forerunners of the new order but are falling back to the old ways of the mediatorial coverings of the Moses generation.
- ▶ The golden calves of glory and gold are beginning to be worshiped once again be warned of those who are like the Gibeonites who were dressed to deceive but made a false covenant.
- ▶ There are those who are operating under the guise of the new but are old wineskins and are deceiving many who are hungry but not discerning.
- ▶ Son this is a warning I am giving you eyes to see and ears to hear that you will be able to discern the differences of the frequencies of the old and the new.
- ▶ I will expose those who are shrinking back to the old structures of earthly government and coverings using new sounding patches on old wineskins that have never been renewed or restored.
- ▶ I have clearly shown you how I operate in times and seasons and I have given you the pattern for three generations to unite together.

Son don't be drawn away from the simplicity of that which flows from My heart of love to embrace that which had been made complex and becomes exclusive knowledge. Son there is no hierarchy within My kingdom but there is a maturity within the different roles that reflects My manifoldness.

I am is expressed in diversity and uniqueness and I celebrate the reflections of My character and nature expressed throughout the created order.

My kingdom is an expression of My essence love and the circle of My relationship anything that does not manifest love and relationship is a perversion of true governmental authority and was birthed from the seed of the DIY tree.

- ▶ Son this is a direct and clear warning do not go back and do not get trapped into covenants with the old order.
- ▶ Son herald this warning loud and clear as I do not want those who have tasted freedom to come back into captivity of those who masquerade as new but who are operating in the old.
- ▶ There many on the journey out of the wilderness of the old who will be fooled by the celebrity status that is developing if they are not warned.
- ▶ I call you to issue this warning to protect those who may not yet have eyes to see or ears to hear the discordant frequencies that are resonating.
- Son prepare now for what is about to come and be ready. Stir my people to become my children so they recognise their sonship and take their places in the government of heaven.
- Prepare for the shift that is coming by looking to Wisdom's pillars and engaging in the assemblies where the times and seasons are being set.

Draw from My heart and come deeper into the depths of love and the secrets and hidden mysteries that are yours to find.

Son raise the expectations by revealing the potential possibilities that you have seen and the creative realities that you can choose from within the depths of love.

Son voice control is an illustration of what your minds are designed to accomplish by the power of your consciousness.

- When you know your identity creation will respond to the power of your thoughts and words to be set free into the glorious essence of your sonship.

Son call and keep calling to creation to be restored, to be free, to be made whole in peace.

Create expectancy within creation itself for freedom issue the answer to the groaning with a new sound of hope.

Son be the sound carry the frequency and walk as a gateway of heaven's hope wherever you go in the seen and unseen realms.

Son call for the establishment of a new vista to see a new horizon, from a whole new dimensional perspective, new beginnings, new priorities, new opportunities, new adventures, new identities, new roles, new positions, new levels of experience, new dimensions.

Behold see I am the God of the new because to Me everything is always new and always old but I always see from the optimistic perspective.

Everything is beginning to be restored like new as it is from My view point.

I am that I am is a statement of My being and My doing.

I am is who I am. I live in beginning and the end, the alpha and the omega, the aleph and the tav therefore nothing is impossible, there is nothing that cannot be restored. Son all things means all things but I choose to do everything relationally in love so it is constantly and continually being renewed as My children discover the truth of their iden

Son you have glimpsed the reality that is My heart and My mind and know how I am at work throughout time and space continually in the now working out the new to conform it to My loving intention.

Restoration is not an event but a continuous and continual realignment of free will choices framing them in love's opportunities.

Son love has won, love is winning and love will win because love never fails is totally consistent, completely trustworthy, reliable and faithful.

Son love has conquered, love is conquering and love will conquer and overcome all obstacles, hindrances, obstructions, distractions and divergences.

I am love and what Paul expressed to the Romans was what he saw and experienced when I opened My heart to him.

Who can be separated from the love of God?

No one, this was not a limited statement from a limited atonement but an all-inclusive proclamation of love's overcoming power.

Nothing is or ever can be separated from love or by definition Me because as love all live and move and have their being exist in Me.

Son the power of love is supremely sovereign and can never fail as Paul again observed and expressed to the Corinthians.

The power of love is unlimited, unrestricted, boundless, abundant, lavish, extreme, radical, effulgent, overflowing, indulgent, untameable, immovable, intransigent,

2017 was a year of expanding our tent pegs pushing the boundaries and releasing creativity. Deconstruction and renewal with the end of old mindsets and the beginning of new possibilities.

New adventures going East to form new connections and open up governmental authority for others to take their places.

New creative expressions, book and blog being more strategic, new relationships within Engaging God 7 New mentoring groups.

New conferences and intensives to encourage the sons of God to be untethered from the earth to arise and take their places of authority in the heavenly realms.

Ambassador's of the Joshua Generation within nations or regions who will administrate the Engaging God programme in heaven for their spheres using laws on our statute book.

Ambassadors with a heart and call for places e.g. cities regions, states nations
Ambassadors for people groups with cultural identity e.g. language, ethnicity or cultural affiliations young, old, new age, old age, religious affiliation etc.

2018 the year to forge new alliances to establish new relational connections.

- Sons to their Father
- Sons to their Brother
- Sons to their Parakletos
- Sons to the circle of the dance of eternal relationship

- Sons to their eternal identity and destiny
- Sons to sons
- Sons and the cloud of witnesses
- Sons and angelic beings
- Sons and dimensional beings
- Sons and the lost
- Sons and the generational lines of lost heritage
- Sons to creation

Circle of the deep for individuals, families, Ekklesia, cities, regions, nations
Once in the position of sonship identity and authority begin to administrate and affect the culture and affairs of your life and then increasing circles of influence, family, neighbourhood, friends, discipleship groups, Mountains, Ekklesia, town, city, nation with the discoveries and weapons at your disposal.

The Treasury House and all its rooms releases its bountiful abundance of wealth that is contained within the destiny of the sons of God.

12 pillars of government, 12 mountains, 12 groups, 12 stones, 12 gates,
Establish therapeutic interventions.

Son I have set out your course for next year and it is to be plotted and navigated with care and precision using the 7 instruments that you were given by Prudence.

Son each of those navigational tools is a representation of a living being that has been assigned to your life.

Let me introduce them to you so that you can familiarise yourself with their frequency and fragrance.

They will be continually at work in supporting your heavenly and earthly roles.

Son meet those who represent the compass, the telescope, the logbooks, the charts, the sextant, the instruments for measuring wind (sound) and waves (light) and the trumpet to herald the call.

You will need to pay more attention to plot the course ahead as you will need to avoid some areas and go through some areas.

There are some storms and calms to navigate both for the local, international and cosmic.

Legislate for these situations ahead of time and prepare for the best outcomes.

Son there is a time to sow and now is it and there will be a time of reaping in due season.

Spread the load and prepare to listen carefully and you will increase.

- Son the season of grace that is coming will need thoughtful planning or it will get out of hand and create a sense of complacency amongst people who will find it easy to go back to the old mindsets.
- Son the weapons of grace must be smart and guided to be strategically deployed

This is why you need representatives for Engaging God within the spheres of influence that you are responsible for.

Call for ambassadors who you can meet with and they can be intelligence gatherers and analysts to provide the information that will inform the operational decisions.

Son this is too big a task for one or two people and needs a network of operatives on the ground.

These can be strategic benches as well as called individuals who see the bigger picture and are intuitive

Son it is time to diversify and increase to take the load globally and cosmically if you are to fulfil the tasks and missions that I have given you.

- I call for order
- I release the sound frequency of the call out into the spiritual atmospheres of the hungry and thirsty to attract their attention.
- I send out the gathering angels out into the highways and byways with scrolls of invitation.
- I align the precepts statutes and laws to release the ordinances.
- I call for the mantles of authority to be made ready and the weapons prepared
- I call for alignment of the High Chancellors houses around the circle of the deep.
- I call for the scrolls to be placed into the hands of the gathering angels
- I call for the discoveries and the mysteries to be unveiled
- I call for the commissioning ceremonies, investitures and enthronements to be prepared

Son be bold in pursuing all that you are destined to do. Do not go back do not hesitate see beyond the natural physical realm to all that is within My heart.

Son all separation and division, fragmentation and fracturedness is from the chaos created when there is no peace.

Creation itself is groaning because it has lost the harmony of peace and is now fractured and divided.

The gospel is the message of the reconciliation of the cosmos when I was broken taking all fragmentation into my body so everything can be restored back to its harmonious origin within Me.

- The restoration of all things was agreed, prepared for and accomplished in Me before anything was even created.
- I call and commission My sons to respond to creation as ambassadors of reconciliation and restorers of the breaches.
- The breaches between all things must be closed and all broken relationships restored so that harmony will once again be the convergence of time and eternity.
- This restoration goes beyond all expectations that have ever been expressed by man but it is the continuum of My mind and My conscious reality.
- Those who have the mind of Christ will be passionate about reconciliation and restoration.

Son feel My heart and know that anything less than total restoration is not an option that I contemplate.

Love never fails love has won is winning and will ultimately win and nothing can ever be separated from Me.

The whole of the created order including all dimensions and realms seen and unseen exist within Me.

- Son this is the year of breakthrough for many who have learned to listen to the sound of My voice and become gentle and humble in heart.
- My desire is that My sons arise and take their places in the heavenlies with Me.
- I desire is to release authority to My sons to a greater level than has been possible before but most are not ready.
- I long for the maturity of My children to become the sons that they have always destined to be.
- My heart has always been open to My children so that they can enter the circle love that had been waiting for them but so many have fear in their hearts towards Me.
- I have been pouring out My love for countless generations but so few have truly experienced its power.

Son embrace the firestones for each season that is revealed to you. Humble yourself and go down from your throne to submit yourself to examination by fire.

Once you have been tested and empowered engage the judgment with your scroll and let the consuming fire of My presence prepare you by aligning My heart with yours.

I let go of my understanding and control of self and I surrender my will and willingly yield all that I think, I know, I am and have to my destiny.

I choose to come back to the simplicity of pure relationship within the eternal circle of love joy and peace.

I embrace the purification of love and I rest in love's essence within security of precepts statutes and laws.

I stand, kneel and I lie as I become merged with love in union and unison within I am so being is enough here joyously incapacitated by love's intrinsic values.

Son arise and let go of this place as I sink deeper into love the river of fire sweeps me away no longer a river bounded by banks and course but gloriously free to expand beyond all barriers.

I remember my first visionary glimpse of heaven with a door unlocked only by the key of my heart revealing the atmosphere of glorious liberty and now I am back to where it first began all limitations and restrictions like the wisps of a cloud dissipating unable to be grasped.

I am again dissolving from all fixation to be part of the whole yet still distinct as I sense and feel the universal discontent of the creation groaning but with hope that sons will also learn to be lost in wonder and awe.

Suddenly I snap back and I am before the fire scroll not in my hand as before but somehow I am a scroll unveiled before the consuming fire of God's loving judgment. The eyes of fire lovingly refining the motives behind every action to the purest intent.

The simplicity of love overwhelms me and inspires me as I drift off to beyond beyond once again.

I feel the call and pull from the hearts and minds of those I am connected to by both mandate and essence.

I hear the thoughts of confusion and feel the despair of lostness and at the same time the restoration of all things grips me and a resoluteness strengthens my resolve.

I stand with renewed passion before the 70, crystal in hand but this time pulsing with energy and motivated by love and call for mercy to triumph through judgment as I feel the full weight of confidence in the victory of the cross.

Waves of love for those trapped in despondency forms a strategy within my mind. I see the reality of restoration and its implications for those who are pulling at my heart and I shout but one word freedom with all heaven's force behind it.

Rather than the echo of that cry diminish it seemed to reverberate and increase in intensity.

To live loved is to rediscover my true identity as a son in relationship with a loving heavenly Father.

Agape love lead you to rest and remember God's image and likeness redeemed in you.

To love living is to express the joy of life from the place of rest to engage creation in sonship

To live loving is to express the peace found in relationship as a son in and through and to everything to bring restoration.
