

How can we be prepared for sonship?

Preparation with help from tutors

Preparation through entering rest

Preparation through soul transformation at different levels

Preparation through the deconstruction and renewal of the mind to expand our consciousness

Rom 12:2 And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect.

1 Cor 2:16 ...But we have the mind of Christ.

If we are going to function as mature sons we need to have the mind of a son of God

As a man thinks in his heart so is he; therefore we need to think like a son of God to act as a son of God

Thinking from our eternal identity of sonship

1 Cor 2:7 but we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, the hidden wisdom which God predestined before the ages to our glory; 8 the wisdom which none of the rulers of this age has understood; Eternal wisdom and knowledge bring true understanding

This is the spiritual wisdom and knowledge that we had in God before we entered this physical realm
Our spirit has consciousness as well as our soul and we need to reconnect with those ancient mysteries that cannot be understood by natural DIY humanistic or religious thinking

To have eternal wisdom we need our minds rewired and remapped with our eternal consciousness
We can then engage with our eternal memory and begin to think nonlinearly
We can begin to reconnect with creation as sons of God

Mind definition - noús the God-given capacity of each person to think (reason); the mind; mental capacity to exercise reflective thinking. For the believer, the mind (noús) is the organ of receiving God's thoughts, through faith.

Mind nous from the root ginóskō – properly, to know, especially through personal experience first-hand acquaintance, to experientially know

We need to encounter the mind of Christ to know the true reality of our eternal identity

Mind definition - the element of a person that enables them to be aware of the world and their experiences, to think, and to feel; the faculty of consciousness and thought.

A person's ability to think and reason; the intellect.

Consciousness definition syneidēsis "together with" and "to know, see"; properly, joint-knowing, i.e. conscience which joins moral and spiritual consciousness as part of being created in the divine image.

Soul and spirit together

Consciousness is the state of being aware of and responsive to one's surroundings.

A person's awareness or perception of something.

That awareness is linked to our past experience and beliefs, so it must be expanded to eternal awareness

To raise our consciousness is to increase our awareness and understanding of what is possible as a son of God, beyond the natural limitations of our physical past

We need an expanded consciousness to become aware of God and ourselves at a new, higher level

Our soul's consciousness is limited by our previous experiences so it is only having new experiences that is going to expand our conscious awareness to behold something different. – How?

By engaging God's mind who is omniscient, all knowing and so going beyond our present limitations by reconnecting to our spiritual faculties

For each of us, our mind has the capacity to go way beyond its present level of conscious awareness For that to be realised we must have encounters that expand our consciousness beyond our present reality or beliefs

You don't need LSD or any drug to counterfeit the reality possible in God

Prov 3:5 Trust in the Lord with all your heart and do not lean or rely on your own understanding. 6 In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight. 7 Do not be wise in your own eyes; – no DIY thinking

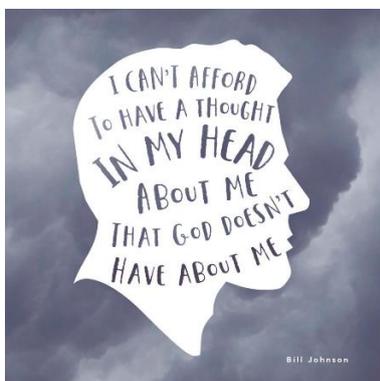

Prov 23:7 For as a man thinks within himself [or in his heart (subconscious mind)], so he is

What do I think about God?

How do I perceive God?

What do I believe about God?

How does what I think and know about God effect how I think about myself?

What do I think about myself?

How do I perceive myself?

What do I believe about myself?

What are God's thoughts about me?

Do I know them, believe them and live out of them?

If we remain earthbound and tethered to what we think we know we will never ascend to the place of maturity in sonship and be fully seated in the highest places in the heavenlies in Christ
We need wisdom from encounters and our eternal memory reconnected
We will only be conscious of earth and its limitations unless our consciousness is expanded beyond the veil and beyond the barrier between time and eternity
We need to become the place of convergence between eternity, heavenly time and earthly time

We need a transformed and renewed mind and expanded consciousness
Transformed (transfigured) is metamorphoó - To change into another completely new form
Renew anakainósis
Complete change for the better, a new development; innovation, fresh, new things

We must go beyond being the human beings that Adam caused mankind to descend into by following the DIY tree path
Man was created an eternal spirit being; we can remember that again
Man was made a living being when spirit, soul and body became one with the breath or Spirit of God

Being living beings was not intended to be the end but just the beginning of a process where man would have ascended into godlike beings, the manifest revealed sons of God
This still God's desire as we engage Him as His children

There would have been ascension experiences of God relationally that would have expanded man's consciousness to higher levels of wisdom, knowledge and understanding
We can still walk with our Father today as Adam did originally

Jesus, the Truth, the last Adam, removes the limits placed on us by the first Adam to conform us to God's original eternal intention by restoring us to our original eternal condition.
Restored bandwidths of energy abilities lost at the fall, flood and Babel

1 Cor 2:16 For who has known the mind of the Lord, that he will instruct Him? But we have the mind of Christ.
Whose mind? Christ, the anointed Son and His anointing, the divine enabling power outworked through our sonship
Obviously we don't have the exact mind of Jesus but we can have the abilities of the restored mind of a son of God

Rom 12:1 Live consistent with who you really are, inspired by the loving kindness of God... He desires to find visible, individual expression in your person. 2 Do not allow current religious tradition to mould you into its pattern of reasoning.

Rom 12:2 Like an inspired artist, give attention to the detail of God's desire to find expression in you. Become acquainted with perfection. To accommodate yourself to the delight and good pleasure of him will transform your thoughts afresh from within.

Paul does not say, "Renew your minds!" This transformation happens in the spirit of your mind, awakened by truth on a much deeper level than a mere intellectual or academic consent.
We often thought that we had to get information to drop from the head to the heart; but it is the other way around!

From the inside out, through relationship

Eph 4:22 that, in reference to your former manner of life, you lay aside the old self, which is being corrupted in accordance with the lusts of deceit, 24 and put on the new self, which in the likeness of God has been created in righteousness and holiness of the truth.

Col 3:10 and have put on the new self who is being renewed to a true knowledge according to the image of the One who created him

How we think can keep us operating in old behaviours and patterns

We need to fly like butterflies not crawl like caterpillars

I had a number of encounters that created cognitive dissonance within me but they expanded my reality of God and myself

I had engaged God's heart many times but this time God said "let me show you My mind"

I thought of light and firing neurones

Being in the mind of God felt like being in the middle of a continuous conversation between Father, Son and Spirit

I heard faint echoes of my name within the conversation

Then I heard the Father say "let Me show you something"

I got a brief glimpse of God's reality

God is connected to every one that has ever lived, is living or will live all at once, 108 Billion and counting

He knows every choice and decision everyone makes as He is in a state of being continually now

His loving desire was to bring good out of every choice and to redeem even the most stupid decisions of every person in all of time

Rom 8:28 And we know that God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.

Rom 8:28 Meanwhile we know that the love of God causes everything to mutually contribute to our advantage.

That is such amazing love that God has for all His children

That love is not limited to only a select group of people who love God but is extended to everyone

Love is the circle of conversation, the communion and fellowship of God, the oneness between the one as three and the three as one, I AM

Son, you can be one as we are one; your body, soul and spirit at oneness, unified and restored to godlikeness to become the light of love to the world.

Son, there is no ego or self within love.

The love that is God is otherly, relational and conversational love, the very essence of I AM

Love is light expressed as thoughts and desires for the benefit of others.

Son, sink deeper and deeper into Me; let the conversation of love surround you and immerse you and fill you.

Son, let the truth that love reveals define you; let it unveil your true image in Me.

You, along with the whole of mankind, are included in Me; so let Me open the eyes of all your faculties so that you can truly know who you are, by reconnecting with who you have been, so you can be a fully mature son

In Me, see your true image framed in love's conversation, revealed in love's true expression. Son, drink from love's deepest well and let the spring in you become a fountain overflowing and flowing as a river of love's energising power.

One day the Father said "Come walk with Me". We began walking in His garden, where He said "I want to show you something"

I saw this amazing area of the garden that was the most beautiful, living, vibrant place I had ever seen, sensed, smelt or engaged with

Then it changed before my eyes into something so different in colour, form and fragrance. And then again it totally changed. I was confused.

"Look through My eyes". And for just a glimpse I could see all the infinite possibilities all at once and I felt His pleasure and enjoyment in all of them

It was like a mind-expanding trip that was to prepare me for what was to come, nonlinear thinking. The thought that I have the mind of Christ (1 Cor 2:16) spun across my mind for a fleeting second, the possibility of nonlinear thinking and multi-dimensional living

Son, walk with Me beyond beyond to where you are destined to be.

We walked through a doorway onto the timeline of my life.

I saw multiple paths created by my mind and engaged by my choices.

I saw where making no choices had taken me and would take me.

I saw where making wrong choices had and would take me.

My first reaction was that I needed to know the right path - the wrong, fearful mind-set of old covenant thinking

Then feelings of loss, regret, sadness from seeing the results of my choices started to overwhelm my emotions.

I then saw the Truth, the reality that once was, begin to come into view as my consciousness entertained this vista of eternal recollection.

I saw my position within the mind of God: pre-eternal sonship; I am as I have always been known.

I saw the light, the energy and the atmosphere change.

I saw myself as light and no longer a vestigial image of my earthly self

I saw new paths forming, remapping my mind with my spiritual consciousness that were the eternal memories of who I was.

I saw bridges begin to span the gulf between what was and what is and what will be.

I began to see that which was shrouded in the mists of the long forgotten and now unknown mysteries begin to become clear.

My spirit's eternal consciousness was overshadowing and remapping my soul's mind
I was reconnecting to the memory of who I was and to the abilities hidden deep within my consciousness that were now being unveiled

Father said "Come and walk with me."

We began to walk; it was dimly lit and it took time for my eyes to adjust

There were pathways crossing and connecting

Son, you cannot see in the darkness because you are looking with the wrong eyes.

Don't try, just rest; be enveloped with that which is the mystery of love hidden for you to discover.

I asked, "Where are we?"

"We are walking in your mind!"

We continued to walk along amazing light paths until we came to a gulf

There were doors beyond the gulf that were closed but I knew were not locked

The Father said "Do you want me to bridge this gulf for you this once?"

"Yes"

I saw a path extend across the gulf

Then I knew that there were future possibilities of new-yet-old abilities being restored in my mind

I saw the possibility of new doors to discover new dimensions of reality.

I felt and sensed the potential possibilities of the eternal reality of who I was always intended to be as a son

The capacities that had been locked away and hidden could now begin to be reconnected

We can all become free from the limitations of the Adamic, DIY tree mind-set

We walked across the light bridge and I looked for the Father to open the door.

He looked at me and I knew I had to open it; I reached out with my mind, in my mind, and the door opened

I just gazed with amazement at "the now" outside of time and space to see all the possible creative choices I could make at that moment

My first reaction was "Which one do I choose? "

Another wrong, law-based mind-set

I immediately felt that fear just melted away as I realised that these were all good and acceptable creative choices because I was walking with the Father as a son and knew His heart

I saw creative possibilities springing from my mind that were all good and would all lead to positive outcomes.

Then I saw it a golden thread that could be traced intersecting my time streams.

It was fixed at both ends but flexible and movable by my choices

My desire was to choose only God's path; so I yielded and surrendered all that I can be by self to become all that I am in Him

I fixed my eyes, my consciousness upon that thread and I realised that my desire to choose only the right path when not linked to fear released me to create and choose any path.

All the potential possibilities of creative expression are good and acceptable to God.

I saw beyond the boundaries and limitations of my consciousness that had been disconnected from true reality.

I could see a possibility and choose it

I could pop a qwiff and collapse the mystery and possibility into reality.

I came out of this encounter, looked at my watch and saw it was 7.45am and I had to be in the office to see Jeremy at 8.00am

I saw that reality and I chose to realise it and I felt at peace

So I went upstairs to get ready

I came down and looked at the kitchen clock. It said 7.55am but I looked at my watch it still showed 7.45am

I decided to test this reality and went into the garden to water the greenhouse and feed the fish

My watch still showed 7.45am

I went to leave and Deb reminded me that she was going to have the car that day

No problem, so I walked. Normally it takes 12-15 minutes

I walked over half of the way and it was still 7.45am. Then time started to move and I got to the office at 7.55am

There are daily opportunities to choose our reality aligned with the heart of God known through face to face intimacy

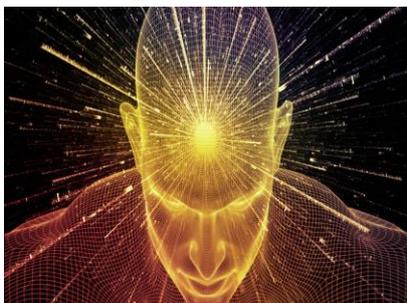

There are limitless possibilities to subdue and rule by aligning our life with the desires of God's heart and being creative sons

Ask the Father to remap your consciousness

Ask the Father to reconnect you to your eternal memory

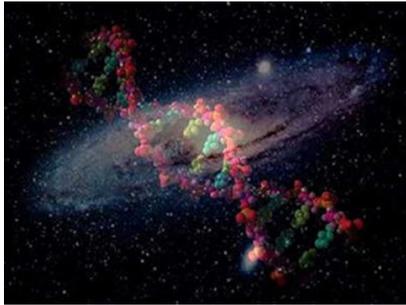

Ask the Father to restore nonlinear thinking

Ask the Father to expand your consciousness

Choose to open your mind to the Father
Invite Him to walk through your mind with you
Reveal the constructs
Remap spiritual consciousness
Restore non-linear thinking
Expand your consciousness

Ask the Father to unplug you from the limited constructs of the matrix of your mind
Ask Him to expand your reality

Ask Him to take you flying beyond your present limitations
Ask Him to take you outside your present boundaries
Ask Him to show you eternal reality
Ask Him to reveal your true reality
