

How can we be prepared for sonship?

Preparation with help from tutors

Preparation through entering rest

Preparation through soul transformation at different levels

Renewing and rewiring of the mind and expanding consciousness

Rom 12:2 And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect.

1 Cor 2:16 ... But we have the mind of Christ.

If we are going to function as mature sons we need the mind of a son

'As a man thinks in his heart so is he'; therefore we need to think like a son of God to be a son of God

Thinking from our eternal identity and using our sonship abilities

Seeing from eternal and heavenly perspectives

Expanding consciousness to unveil extra sensory abilities

Controlling and manipulating energy, frequency and matter

Creating, choosing and framing reality

Translation in time and space

What reality are you living?

From whose perspective are you viewing reality? – Yours or God's

You can choose and change your present reality

All reality or truth if not seen through the perspective of The Truth, Jesus Himself, will eventually become a nightmare

All of our minds are constructed from pillars of beliefs and value systems that have been built through the experiences of our lives

Those pillars form our worldviews and frame how we interpret the world around us – they shape our conscious reality

We see the world through the lens and filters of life's experiences; they give us a confirmational-biased view that perpetuates the status quo

Those pillars in our minds may be an illusion or false representations of reality when compared with The Truth, Jesus, who is the only true reality

'When your mind is stretched by a big idea it will never return to its original shape.' – Thomas Carlyle

Once the first pillar of evangelicalism was removed from my mind the theological belief systems began to crumble

Doctrines and theological positions not reflecting God's love began to be exposed as lies; they began to be exposed by the light of truth

I began to see things I never saw before, connected with people who were invisible to me before

Many long-held beliefs were challenged by the experiences of God's love I had when engaging with Him face to face

My whole relationship with God began to change as my filters were removed and I started to see everything through the lens of love

I asked God "What is going to replace those pillars and constructs in my mind?"

Son, let Me form the pathways of the tree of life within the construct of your mind.

Let Me reform and reconnect the ancient paths within your brain so that your consciousness will become unrestricted and your creative potential will become unlimited.

There were 9 main roots of the tree of life that began to grow like an organic system forming connections within my consciousness

The tree of life has many different spiritual levels of revelation to engage with and be positioned in

Deconstruction and renewal is so important because the restoration of all things is impossible with our sonship identity limited by restrictions and illusions of reality

We are not going to fix the problem with the same DIY methods that created it

We are not going to build embassies of heaven like they did at Babel to make a name for themselves

We will have the ability to construct organically using quantum reality

We will need to be able to choose new realities with the power of our consciousness

The whole cosmos – everything – is waiting for us to mature as sons

Sons who know the truth and full reality about their Father and themselves

We need to see God as He truly is and see ourselves as created in His image
The illusions and delusions must be exposed so that we can be unplugged from this false matrix of reality

Only the Truth that I am conscious of and know by experience will set me free from being tethered to the earthly physical realm and being subject to its rules and bondages
The Truth desires to release us into the glorious freedom of our sonship as co-heirs of His kingdom

Freedom from bondage of every kind – can you see that reality?
Freedom from sickness, disease and pain – can you see that reality?
Freedom from rejection, fear, insecurity, poverty and every bondage and limitation – can you see those realities?
If we can't see these things as truth they will not manifest in our lives

John 8:32 "You will know the truth and the truth will set you free! ... 36 Who the son (The Truth) sets free will be free indeed"
Free from the chains of time and space and the dimensional restrictions of the matrix of our belief systems and mind-sets
Free to fly untethered and unrestricted

If we can't perceive the heavenly and eternal realms that we are citizens of we will remain confined and tethered to this earthly DIY version of reality
Earthbound, restricted and living in a carefully constructed illusion that limits us to being mere mortals unable to change anything or fulfil our destiny

2 Cor 2:4 in whose case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving so that they might not see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.
In what ways are we blinded by the world's DIY system?
Whose reality are we living in?

Many supernatural abilities have been veiled and perverted by the New Age movement and put off limits by the religious spirits operating within the old order religious systems
We must recover those hijacked abilities
All truth is from God, because Jesus is the Truth, but some things have been veiled in deception and counterfeited

The Matrix is a modern parable that reveals that the truth can free our minds
You are listening to this today rather than doing anything else because you know something has to change
You know you can't keep walking the same path and expect it to take you somewhere else; there must be change

"Wake up, Neo! The Matrix has you"
"Let me tell you why you're here. You're here because you know something. What you know, you can't explain. But you feel it. You felt it your entire life. That there's something wrong with the world. You don't know what it is, but it's there. Like a splinter in your mind - driving you mad."

Neo from the Greek neos means new

Neo is an anagram of One; we are all the one, each of us uniquely designed and chosen as a son of God

Knowing this truth will set us free

It is time to wake up from the nightmare that has kept us limited and locked in unreality.

“This is your last chance. After this, there is no turning back. You take the blue pill - the story ends, you wake up in your bed and believe whatever you want to believe.

“You take the red pill - you stay in Wonderland and I show you how deep the rabbit-hole goes.”

“Neo, sooner or later you're going to realize just as I did that there's a difference between knowing the path and walking the path”

“You have to let it all go, Neo. Fear, doubt, and disbelief. Free your mind.”

“I'm trying to free your mind, Neo. But I can only show you the door. You're the one that has to walk through it.”

“Unfortunately, no one can be told what the Matrix is. You have to see it for yourself.

“The question is are you willing to look?”

“The Matrix is everywhere. It is all around us. Even now, in this very room. You can see it when you look out your window or when you turn on your television. You can feel it when you go to work... when you go to church... when you pay your taxes. It is the world that has been pulled over your eyes to blind you from the truth.”

What is real?

How do you define 'real'?

If you're talking about what you can feel, what you can smell, what you can taste and see, then 'real' is simply electrical signals interpreted by your brain.

Do not try and bend the spoon. That's impossible. Instead... only try to realize the truth.

What truth? There is no spoon!

Then you'll see that it is not the spoon that bends, it is only yourself.

Neo: “What truth?”

Morpheus: “That you are a slave, Neo. Like everyone else you were born into bondage. Into a prison that you cannot taste or see or touch. A prison for your mind.”

“The Matrix is a system, Neo. That system is our enemy. But when you're inside, you look around, what do you see? Businessmen, teachers, lawyers, carpenters. The very minds of the people we are trying to save...

“You have to understand, most of these people are not ready to be unplugged. And many of them are so injured, so hopelessly dependent on the system, that they will fight to protect it.”

“Remember... all I'm offering is the truth. Nothing more.”

“Free your mind and be welcomed to the real world”

Nosce te ipsum - know thy self

Tu ipse esto - be yourself, your true self as a son of God

“Don't think you are, know you are.”

Neo: “What are you trying to tell me? That I can dodge bullets?”

Morpheus: “No, Neo. I'm trying to tell you that when you're ready, you won't have to.”

The veil of illusion has limited our potential and kept us earthbound

Knowing yourself is impossible apart from knowing Jesus

We must know the Truth if we are to be free indeed.

The veil is the construct of deception that has robbed us of true reality.

When we come to know the Truth we can experience that true reality

True reality is not what we have come to know through our earthly experiences therefore we have been living in an illusion veiled as reality

What is your reality?

Is your reality shaped by what you have experienced and what you have seen?

Can you trust what you see?

Some scientists believe that this reality behaves like a holographic projection

Where are you looking for your reality?

Our consciousness is a series of electrical impulses in our synapses passing along neural pathways that our brain interprets as thoughts

We have learnt to interpret those signals

We can also learn to use those signals

The world of matter and energy responds to us when we learn to focus those signals using our consciousness

Everything depends on which perspective you are looking at it from

Your consciousness has the ability to alter energy and matter from a quantum perspective

Light is an energy wave that carries the potential to become a matter particle depending on the thought of the viewer:

This Truth may be beyond what I can presently imagine or think.

Renewing our minds will expand our consciousness to begin to know our true potential.

God chose the foolish things to confound the wise so we would know it is only through Jesus the truth

Our minds must be enlightened or illuminated by the light of Truth:

The vast sum of God's thoughts about us that reveal that we are sons of God, created in His image, with a destiny to rule the universe with Him

That truth will unlock the true potential of our sonship, the creative image we are made in.

Eph 5:14 For this reason it says, "Awake, sleeper, And arise from the dead, And Christ will shine on you."

Waking up to knowing the Truth as a person will set us free to be who God intended, a son

The truth will challenge your present perception of yourself

We can know the truth from God's perspective and align ourselves with His thoughts about us

We can see ourselves free from religion, pain, insecurity, fear, addiction

We can see ourselves healed and restored

We can see ourselves loved, accepted, affirmed and significant

Our conscious thought has quantum power

The universe responds to the focus of our consciousness.

We have the mind of Christ, therefore the capacity for the greater works.

It is time to embrace the potential possibilities of who we are because of who He has made us to be.

Our consciousness has the ability to frame our reality

Quantum physics connects conscious observation to creating reality

What do we believe is possible?

What do we believe is impossible?

Impossible or 'I'm possible'?

Quantum observation

Quantum entanglement

Quantum tunnelling

Quantum faith

Let's be creative sons of God, not limited by our DIY pasts, to create a better future

One of the core principles of Quantum Physics is the idea that reality (the photons that produce the light-illusion we all occupy) exists in infinite possible states (ie: the many-worlds scenario) until we observe it and thus collapse all potential versions of reality into the one single option we've chosen to live inside.

Consider you're sitting on your sofa and you are suddenly struck with the desire to do something different.

You are suddenly faced with the decision between infinite permutations of reality; you could do infinite things

As you weigh things up, what you start to focus on becomes more likely to occur

You could get up and leave

You could turn on the light; you could walk outside; you could go to the kitchen, you could turn on the TV or turn on your computer or view your phone

You could choose to do many things

Past rewards and memories can drive you towards your choice and reality

You can immerse your consciousness into any reality you want. But you must decide which action you will take, you must make a choice on which reality you want to 'observe' at the cost of becoming 'blind' to all other options.

Compulsive behaviour driven by your past choices can overwhelm you

As soon as you select a reality and move towards that observed choice, suddenly the photons around you blur and shift as you pull yourself deeper into that reality; reality begins manifest as every other possibility is no longer an option for you

The options you didn't select now fade out of conscious thought, out of observation, and thus begin to experience a decay of quantum likelihood as you continually move away from them in pursuit of your selected reality.

Double-mindedness is instability

But that option which you did select, its photons are now becoming more vivid, turning from abstract imaginary choice into tangible forms you can interact with (whether its the light switch, the TV, computer, phone or the walk).

This concept is the fact that your internal consciousness, those synapses and chemicals manipulated by your thoughts, can alter the physical photons that surround you.

Whose reality do you want to create and from which source do you draw on to make your choices? God or the DIY system?

If you are choosing from your past you may be:

Hiding your passion and creativity because you're afraid you may not be good enough

Such as not doing art because someone said you were bad at it.

Not pursuing a passion because someone told you it was a silly pastime that would never make you money.

Agreeing to plans you don't really want to be a part of to fit in

Staying in a job or relationship that doesn't fulfil you because you need the money

Not taking the time to look for other jobs for fear of switching to something new.

Not going after jobs that would make you happier but may not be as financially stable.

Pursuing relationships that you know aren't healthy because you don't want to be alone.

Our present reality is controlled by the programming of our past experiences and knowledge

Our future reality will continue to be a self-perpetuating fulfilment of our past unless we start to see from a new heavenly reality perspective

If you do decide to escape your own source you have the power to envision a future reality that does not currently exist.

So rather than simply choosing from an already existing menu that you engage with, you can instead create new photon-forms that never existed before and inject them into reality.

We have this incredible ability called imagination: the ability to mentally envision a thing or a concept and then summon it into reality.

We all have that ability but do we use it?

Heb 11:3 By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things which are visible.

Rom 4:17 ...even God, who gives life to the dead and calls into being that which does not exist.

Rom 4:17 and is calling the things that be not as being. YLT

All the things you see today: buildings, cars, planes, tables, chairs, computers, even the clothes on your body; these are all physical items we can now choose to interact with even though they originally only existed as thought forms inside someone's mind.

They were all once inert pieces of quantum possibility floating in the abstract realm of human imagination until someone came along and had the means to choose to pursue their creation. What reality are we creating for our lives?

From whose perspective are you viewing yourself?

What reality are you creating from your observation?

Are you perpetuating a reality based on what you already know or have already experienced?

This quantum wave collapse, caused by observation is called 'popping a qwiff'.

You can see or observe a God qwiff (something God shows you that is not yet real in this dimension) and, by observing or popping that qwiff, cause that potential to become your reality.

Information flowing from your future possibilities is waiting for you to see - to observe - and call those things that are not as though they are.

The quantum leap of knowing your purpose and assignment is waiting as a God qwiff for you to pop!

– David Van Koevering

God has dignified man by giving him free will to choose and create his own reality aligned to those choices

Those choices made independently of God have created the chaotic DIY state the world now exists in They are created without the true reference point of love for self

When we are reconciled and restored in relationship with God Himself our mind can be renewed This opens up the potential possibilities that we are able to access the eternal mind of God; then our future reality can be realigned from an eternal godly perspective

Continuing to use the DIY methods as substitutes for God reality e.g. using drugs, alcohol, pornography, food, relationships, religious works or your addiction to DIY keeps you in bondage

Choose another future, see another reality, see your freedom and your God destiny
Son, you are created and crafted with the created nature of I am as a son of God.
Your true potential is limitless but is controlled by the boundaries that exist within your consciousness.

Son, rest in the 7th day to embrace the new beginnings of the 8th day.

“Matter is spirit moving slowly enough to be seen’ – Pierre Teilhard de Chardin

Thoughts and intentions of our heart are key in framing our desires Quantum understanding of the conscious expression of the intentions of our heart that frame our reality
Light already knows your intentions and that forms reality
Use your focused intention wisely

All of creation has its eyes fixed, looking for true sons to be revealed.
Will you be one of those sons?
Will you accept the call?
Will you embrace your destiny?
Will you accept His yoke and learn from Him, the Truth?
He is calling for the sons of God to arise.

Jesus is here, waiting to engage you; will you choose that possibility?
Let Him unplug you from the limited constructs of your mind
Let Him expand your reality
Let Him expand your conscious awareness of who you are
Let the Truth free you to know true reality

- Let Him begin to renew your mind by revealing the truth of His love for you
- Let Him show you that He accepts you
- Let Him unveil your destiny

Let Him begin to renew your mind by revealing the truth of His love for you
Let Him show you that He accepts you
Let Him unveil your destiny

- Let Him take you flying beyond your present limitations
- Let Him take you outside your present boundaries
- Let Him show you eternal reality
- Let Him reveal your true reality

Let Him take you flying beyond your present limitations
Let Him take you outside your present boundaries
Let Him show you eternal reality
Let Him reveal your true reality
