

How can we be prepared for sonship?
Preparation with help from tutors
Preparation through entering rest
Renewing the mind expanding consciousness
Knowing the heart of God

Intimacy with the Father is the best preparation for sonship as you can't be a son without a father
We need cardiognosis, face to face, heart to heart, knowing the desires of the Father's heart
Sonship is reflecting God's heart

We need to take our place within the order of Melchizedek as sons with YHVH
Psa 110:4 The Lord has sworn and will not change His mind, "You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek."

Heb 6:19 This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and one which enters within the veil, 20 where Jesus has entered as a forerunner for us, having become a high priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

The Order of Melchizedek is a heavenly royal priesthood that is outworked through the oracles and legislators on the earth
We connect heaven and earth and are gateways of heaven into the earth

This order is associated with the arc of God's presence, the mercy seat and the name of God YHVH, represented by the 4 faces of God: Lion, Ox, Eagle, Man
King, Oracle, Legislator, Priest
This is our cherubic nature

Our cherubic nature is our pre-fall primordial state made in the image of God
The intertwined cherubim being a mystical representation of the union of heaven and earth
Lion, Ox, Eagle, Man - Ezek 1 and 10

Ezek 1:10 As for the form of their faces, each had the face of a man; all four had the face of a lion on the right and the face of a bull on the left, and all four had the face of an eagle.
Associated with the throne of heaven

The Cherub is in reality a multidimensional structure made of different angelic beings or faces which forms in man's ascension process.
Connecting the governmental order of Melchizedek and the oracles of the Father's heart

We are to be oracles and legislators

What is an Oracle and what are oracles?

An Oracle was someone who offered advice or a prophecy thought to have come directly from a divine source

Prophesier, prophet, seer

A person or thing regarded as an infallible authority on something

The oracles of God are the weight of His glory expressed in words we can connect to and carry the weight of

Num 24:16 The oracle of him who hears the words of God, And knows the knowledge of the Most High, Who sees the vision of the Almighty, Malachi 1:1 The oracle of the word of the Lord to Israel through Malachi.

Heb 5:12 For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you have need again for someone to teach you the elementary principles of the oracles of God, and you have come to need milk and not solid food.

Massa Hebrew a load, burden

The Oracle carries the weight of the word reflecting the heart of the Father

Oracles are the weight or intensity of the word of the Father's heart that we engage in cardiognosis

Oracles Greek logion - divine reponse or utterances

A divine declaration; a statement originating from God.

The revelation of the heart of God expressed with meaning, feeling and weight

In all my exploring and all my encounters of deep calling me to deep there is one thing that characterises those experiences more than anything else – LOVE

The oracles represent love expressed from the Father's heart

The more I know God, the more I realise the infinite depth of His essence and being is LOVE and the more I know He loves me and I Him

The oracles are the glory or weight of the Father's heart

The starting point is the love of God for us... out of that love we will be able to love Him, ourselves and others.

The delusion of still being under the law has kept God's children in bondage and restricted true sonship

Engaging God means engaging love and living loved and expressing the love we have experienced as light to creation

Creation is longing for us to reveal love's light, as sons reflecting the oracles of the Father's heart

I was standing in the 4 faces in the name of God in the holy of holies, looking through the eyes of the Ox face

Wisdom stood in front of me and said "Let me show you the oracles of the Father's heart"

I felt 5 intense truths that revealed the Father's heart towards all His children and all of creation
These were the depths of truth expressed as the emotions that stirred and motivated my being

These are the oracles I felt as Wisdom unveiled them

- Passion
- Burning desire

- Intense joy
- Deep compassion
- Overwhelming love

Passion of the Father's heart for all His children and all creation
Burning desire of the Father's heart for all His children and all creation
Intense joy of the Father's heart for all His children and all creation

Deep compassion of the Father's heart for all His children and all creation
Overwhelming love of the Father's heart for all His children and all creation
We must experience the depth and the weight of these oracles

She said "let these oracles of God's heart motivate, inspire and empower you to act in LOVE".
God loves all of His children with an intensity that few have experienced but all will experience one way or another

Son, come walk with Me. We walked through the river of fire, pausing to sink into the fire of love, consumed by love's passion and burning desire.
I began to feel the power of love, the depth of love, the fire of love within God's oracles; the desires of His heart for His children, for me.

The intense joy within the fire, the deep compassion within the consuming fire that is purifying me into health and wellness, wholeness.
Restoring and integrating my spirit, soul and body into the oneness of love

I felt even deeper the intensity of God's overwhelming love penetrating deeper and deeper into me. I saw why fire is within the nature of God Himself, the essence of love cannot be separated from fire they are the true expression of the precepts of God's heart and desires.

I sank further, even deeper into the intensity and heat, and the pressure of love intensified. The fire's intense heat and pressure is the process of transformation that can turn coal into diamonds.

Son, embrace and welcome the heat and pressure (that is symbolic of what you are going through right now in your life) with joy, and maintain peace.

Son, let the fire at this depth break open all the bonds within your life so all the trapped and hidden things within the fabric of your being, even down to your DNA and space within your atoms, can be released.

Son, you know where this river goes and who will be exposed to the presence of My consuming fiery love; but because they don't know Me they get caught up with the anguish that is revealed in their soul.

They need fire walkers to reveal My love and My loving nature within the fire.
They need the testimony of love within fire as good news within the pain of true self-awareness or their soul will create guilt, shame and condemnation from the choices they realise they have made.

Who but those who have embraced the consuming fire of My love in their lives can present that testimony?

Son, help the Joshua Generation to come into the fire of transformation that is the expression of the oracles of My heart.

Son, the fires of adversity produce the purest of hearts that can truly know Me to become gold, silver and precious stones within My kingdom.

Son, the more intense the heat, the more pure the heart and the more the precious stones radiate love's light.

Son, come and walk with Me.

We went to the Court of the Upright and as we stood before the galleries of the cloud of witnesses Jacob came forward and grasped my hand; immediately there was a burst of energy and enlightenment

The Samaritan women of Jacob's well came forward and grasped my hand and I immediately felt her pain and the Father's passion for her inclusion, acceptance and restoration to relationship and intimacy.

The immensity of the Father's heart overwhelmed me with a deep desire for all who are stigmatised and excluded because of lifestyle to be included, accepted and welcomed to belong. I understood why passion for people and wrath against the restrictions blocking people are the same word

Then John came forward and held my hand and another charge of energy blasted me with the deep truth of heart to heart fellowship, deep intimacy and the passion that he felt from Jesus that transformed a fisherman into a fisher of men

The burning desire he felt from Jesus for intimacy and relationship that transcended the barriers of the old covenant image of God, to reveal the deepest desire for the restored face to face relationship in innocence.

Heart to heart, mind to mind, face to face where Jesus' passion and burning desire for intimacy and true connection just burst into my being from one who knows first hand the depths that Jesus was prepared to go.

The image of Jesus knocking on the door within all who are made alive in Christ and the burning desire that all would open that door just exploded in my mind and in my heart.

Then the woman who anointed Jesus with tears and perfume stepped forward and held my hand in her hands and the light of truth burst forth with the intense joy that she felt from Jesus' love for her and His intense joy of her response to His love for her.

I sensed her deep shame; the feelings she felt as one who was an outcast in society, shamed because of her sin and deeply embarrassed by the way the religious system had stigmatised her for her lifestyle.

Then the intensity of the joy Jesus felt as He welcomed her into the closest of relationship and how proud He was when she poured the perfume over His head and feet.

I felt His joy become her joy as He overwhelmed her with His deepest emotions, the intensity of His pride and joy that she was welcomed into His closest friends.

His feelings of intense joy that so contradicted the callous, dismissive attitude of society that had marginalised and stigmatised her, causing her to be excluded and ostracised.

The deep intensity of joy that empowered Jesus to leave the 99 and pursue the one lost sheep.

That one sheep – lost, lonely, an outsider – inspired such passion, burning desire and intense joy that Jesus was willing to go into the depths of Sheol to seek, find, rescue from perishing in lost identity... and restore it to the fold.

The leprous man who returned to thank Jesus for his healing came and grasped my hand and the deep compassion that he felt from Jesus representing the Father's heart moved me.

The depth of the Father's desire for healing, health, wholeness consumed me with passion, burning desire, intense joy and deep compassion when I felt the pain and fear of brokenness and fragmentation.

The depth of the Father's compassion for the brokenness and lost identity of all His children is so immense that the Father in Jesus took all of mankind's brokenness into Himself so all His children could be restored to innocence and wholeness, redeemed from the curse of DIY evil.

Lazarus came and grasped my hand. I immediately felt the overwhelming love that caused Jesus to weep at his loss in the deception of death's grip.

I felt Jesus' love for Mary and Martha and all who grieve and are sorrowful over the loss of a loved one in the illusion of separation of death.

I felt His overwhelming love for all His children that motivated Him to carry our griefs and sorrows to the cross.

Then the power and victory of the cross captured and captivated my heart and mind as it encapsulated the oracles of God's heart.

The celebration of life that bursts forth from the overcoming of death. The power of love that is stronger than death and the joy of resurrection life that conquered death and the grave brings the realisation of the power of the oracles of God

Heaven's celebration when the keys of death and Hades are restored back to their rightful owner was and is intense and is filled with the joyful sound of Jubilee.

The triumphant procession of freedom as all the chains are broken and all the powers of darkness are brought into the glorious light of love.

The fullest expression of the oracles of God's heart is the verdict of the cross that redeemed and restored innocence in full reconciliation with the cry 'Not guilty! Innocent!'

Mercy had triumphed over judgment and the grace of justice is released in the power of the good news.

Arise, shine, the light of love's power has come and the glory of God's oracles is to radiate from us as the light of transfigured sons is revealed from heaven into the earth.

The sound of heaven's joy and glorious harmony resounding to resonate on the earth is amplified through the intensity of the oracles of God's heart.

Son, I am not a God of balance but of extremes; do not try to bring balance in what you do.

I can come like the gentle breeze in total and absolute peace and I can come like a tornado of mighty power.

Don't try to balance these extremes, embrace them and allow Me to be Me whenever you gather.

I am sometimes a gentle steam of quiet waters, refreshing with peace and love but I am also a raging, passionate torrent, sweeping all before Me with extreme force.

Don't try to balance My presence, just facilitate My presence and allow Me to be Me.

I am the warming, comforting fire on a cold night and the raging, passionate fire, purifying and refining everything in its path.

Don't try to cage Me, contain Me or limit Me but embrace the extremes of love and peace and the excesses of joy.

Son, encouraging everyone to engage Me for themselves in rest is good but allowing Me to come and minister to them in power is also good.

Son, heaven is open and I invite all My children to come up here and be with Me face to face; but don't forget I desire also to come down through that open heaven to meet with you face to face in the physical realm.

I am the God of extremes and excess; lavish, abundant, overflowing in grace and mercy.

I am awesome in almighty power, untameable, uncontrollable, unlimited.

I am that I am, so do not let your mind limit Me to your own understanding but be ready for the unexpected and the surprising with no limitations on what is possible.

Remember I am in the still small voice and the mighty, rushing wind therefore I am gentle and humble in heart but also passionate and wrathful in defence of My children.

Son, don't try to tame Me as My love is excessive, burning with intense desire, passionate and extreme, overwhelming and effulgent.

I am a consuming fire, passionately expressing My love; there are no depths, heights or widths that I am not willing to go to remove every obstacle, barrier and defence against My love.

Son, nothing can separate My children from My love and presence; I am love and I will not be denied.

Rom 8:35 What will it take to distance us from the love of Christ? You name any potential calamity: intense pressure of the worst possible kind, cluster-phobia, persecution, destitution, loneliness, extreme exposure, life-threatening danger, or war?

Rom 8:37 ... His love has placed us above the reach of any onslaught. 38 This is my conviction; no threat whether it be in death or life; be it angelic beings, demon powers or political principalities, nothing known to us at this time, or even in the unknown future;

Rom 8:39 no dimension of any calculation in time or space, nor any device yet to be invented, has what it takes to separate us from the love of God demonstrated in Christ. Jesus is our ultimate authority.

Son, set and reset the desires of your heart. Refocus on the key foundation that is rest.

Bring everything into rest, focusing on love, joy and peace to restore passion, desire, joy, compassion and love.

Son, My oracles are to be the motivation of all My children but they all need to experience the depth of My heart of unconditional love.

Son, create a meditative exercise around My oracles to take people deeper into the true knowledge of I AM, so they can be.

Rest goes deeper than love, joy and peace as love is defined by My oracles and they will inspire joy and peace to a greater depth of reality.

What you experienced from the testimony of the witnesses can be experienced by others, so open the door to that opportunity.

The passion of unconditional love is pure and will never stop in its pursuit of intimacy of restored relationship.

The burning desire of unconditional love is so intense that it will be like a consuming fire that will refine, purify and consume all obstacles, hindrances, mind-sets, beliefs, strongholds and religious deceptions to reveal true love.

The intense joy of the unconditional love the creator Father has for His children expresses the pure pride He feels for each unique individual that reveals how special and wonderfully made they are.

The joy that the Father feels is revealed in the vast sum of His thoughts towards each as the apple of the Father's eye and the treasure of His heart.

Each child is precious, appreciated and so valued that the only price that could be paid in exchange is His own life.

The intense joy reveals the infinite worth of each individual child, far beyond any earthly measure. The deep compassion of unconditional love reveals the lengths and depths and height that the Father will go to redeem, reconcile and restore each and every child back to face to face innocence.

It reveals how far Jesus was willing to go to bring each child to wholeness, oneness, health; by taking on the brokenness of our lost identity physically, mentally and emotionally in His own body.

Identifying fully with our lostness, brokenness, pain, anguish, fragmentation, separation, isolation, rejection, guilt, shame, condemnation and prejudice by representing us, becoming us and going into death and Sheol.

The overwhelming nature of unconditional love that will overcome and conquer everything that stands in the way of redemption, reconciliation and restoration for each of God's children; even death itself is swallowed up in victory.

The Father's mercy triumphs over the judgment of the DIY law system that demands vengeance and retribution...

...with lavish grace, inspired by the overwhelming, all-conquering power of love

Son, My overwhelming love will conquer all things as it will not fail, will not ever give up.

My overwhelming love is stronger than death, more jealous than the grave; nothing can quench its fierce passion and burning desire for relationship of restored face to face innocence.

My love for each of My children cannot fail and cannot ever stop, any more than I can cease to be I AM.

Love is the atmosphere of glory, the frequency of heaven and the timeless now within the circle of the dance.

Love is perichoresis and apokatastasis, therefore the restoration of all things is love's inevitable consequence.

There can be no end to love it is eternal and infinite and is expanding with the order of creation in its government and peace.

My love has no beginning and no end and is the alpha and omega, the aleph and tav, the living word and truth; and is the fullest expression and intrinsic essence of I am that I am.

1 Cor 13:2 ... Love is who you are! You are not defined by your gift or deeds. (Love gives context to faith. Moving mountains is not the point, love is.) 3 Love is not about defending a point of view; even if I am prepared to give away everything I have and die a martyr's death; love does not have to prove itself by acts of supreme devotion or self-sacrifice!

1 Cor 13:4 Love is large in being passionate about life and relentlessly patient in bearing the offenses and injuries of others with kindness. Love is completely content and strives for nothing. Love has no desire to make others feel inferior and has no need to sing its own praises. 5 Love is predictable and does not behave out of character. Love is not ambitious. Love is not spiteful and gets no mileage out of another's mistakes.

1 Cor 13:6 Love sees no joy in injustice. Love's delight is in everything that truth celebrates. 7 Love is a fortress where everyone feels protected rather than exposed! Love's persuasion is persistent! Love believes. Love never loses hope and always remains constant in contradiction. 8 Love never loses its altitude! The quest for knowledge will be inappropriate when perfection is grasped.

(The Greek word for the love of God is agape from the word, agoo, meaning to lead like a shepherd guides his sheep, and pao, meaning to rest, i.e. "he leads me beside still waters." By the waters of reflection my soul remembers who I am. [Ps 23]. God's rest is established upon his image and likeness redeemed in us.

1 Cor:13:12 There was a time of suspense, when everything we saw was merely mirrored in the prophetic word, like in an enigma; but then (when I became an adult in the revelation of Christ) I gaze face-to-face that I may know me, even as I have always been known!

Faith, hope and love are in seamless union. Agape is the superlative of everything faith and hope always knew to be true about me! Love defines my eternal moment!

God is light, spirit, fire and God is love;
God is joy and peace, God is good, God is kind, God is patient, God is faithful;
God is merciful and God's grace is abundant;
God's oracles need to resonate in us and rest upon us.

I began to encounter the oracles and experience the depth of their meaning and go deeper into love's agenda
I made some legislative declarations that are inspired by those oracles to release their frequency into creation
