

VISION DESTINY 2021 4

I am going to review some of the things that were key in 2020 so far
I will share my journals; that will include:
What God said in 2020 so far
What God did in 2020 so far
What does that mean for 2021?

10 February 2020

Son, a storm is coming naturally in the world but an even greater storm is coming spiritually
I have warned you about the shift and this storm is part of it.
A storm of grace and a storm of opposition to grace.

This will be a wild storm that will shake the world so make sure that you stay in rest in the midst of opposition, with a loving forgiving heart.
Only love has the power to overcome but that love must be true and unconditional to have such power.

True love that is a full representation of who We are is the only reality that can change and transform an enemy into a friend.
Son, we have no enemies and all things that We created are loved; and that love will eventually win over all, as it will never relent in its pursuit of restoration.

Only those with gentle and humble hearts can know true love and truly love unconditionally.
Only those who come to Me recognising and admitting that they are weary and burdened can enter into true rest from their self-effort.

Many seek me in their own DIY way but will never find Me through their religious efforts; but as soon as they give up, there I am.
I am using this shift to move Our children from independence to relationship but only surrender can facilitate that.

Son, bless those who bless you and bless those who curse you; and many who now curse you will respond to your heart of love.
Love will win because love has won. Love endures: it will never cease because I am is the love between Us.

I am can never cease to be love, therefore love is the eternal substance that is the light and substance of creation.
The shining of love's light will eventually overcome all opposition to restore all things.

Son, open the doors to the dimensions for others to follow with love's light as Oracles to reveal Our true character and nature.
As the sons of God arise, so will the awareness levels of creation to restoration.
Love's light brings hope where it rises and shines.

The frequency of sonship is beginning to cross the barriers and boundaries of creation with the hope of restoration; now this hope must become reality.
I am is calling to the sons with the sound of freedom's hope for restored identity and position.

VISION DESTINY 2021 4

Creation's longing is coming to an end now that the darkness is being overcome with the light of love's life.

The revealing of grace as limitless, abundant and free is going to create ripples throughout the dimensions.

Son, be bold and very courageous in the face of the opposition from those in religious bondage to fear.

11 February 2020

Son, look into the eyes of Your Father; what do you see?

I see love: fiery, passionate love.

Go deeper; what do you see?

I see a burning, all-consuming desire.

Go further into the depths of the fire.

I now felt it: the intense joy that is becoming stronger, almost painful in its intensity.

Son, come deeper into the fire with Us.

I felt the depths of compassion that moves and motivates all Your actions even to discipline those You love so they can be healed and restored to wholeness.

Son, it is painful living in each moment with each child when they are living less than who We know them to be.

Son, come deeper into the flames that burn within Us.

I felt it, saw it, knew it: love, amazing, overwhelming love.

A love so powerfully passionate with burning desire that it can never stop, even when all is restored.

Love is the fire that will consume all in its way to restore all things to their rightful, intended position within I am as love.

So all can once again know true invincible, unstoppable, unrelenting love.

13 February 2020

I chose to accept the invitation that the Father gave me to come into the dark cloud of perfection.

I stepped into the river of fire, sinking into a deeper fire, surrendering my whole being to the purifier.

I felt the fire going through my being: spirit, soul and body; an intense, burning desire came over me so I moved towards the firestones; but I started at the top and went down, humbling myself under the Father's mighty hand until I stood in love.

The Oracles began around me but started to go in me and through me, like 5 wheels within wheels, activating my 5 senses, until I became tuned to the frequencies.

I heard the call and I responded by birthing a fiery stone from my innermost being.

I ascended each stone until I stood on the tenth stone and immediately I was shrouded in darkness that welcomed me in.

The deeper I went, the more thick and overwhelming it felt, until I was at the matrix of perfection.

VISION DESTINY 2021 4

I stepped in and waited until I felt the desire to enter rise up in me.
I stepped through the matrix into an atmosphere of pure love and light that was so rich that I gasped and breathed deeper.
It felt like everything was in ultra slow motion, each moment intensified like it was a lifetime.

My whole being as light began to pulse rhythmically but each beat felt like an age.
Everything was so slow and drawn out that it was like I was suspended in that moment, experiencing all that there is to savour before the next beat imperceptibly drew my whole being into sync.

Then I felt movement, vibrating, but it was also flowing slowly towards a point of light that eventually captivated me with an overwhelming sense of expectancy.
The light enveloped me so that I was within it and it was in me.
I was captivated by the light of love's truth: pure energy, pure thought, pure oneness in this realm of pure light.

I was both within and observing from without simultaneously; seeing, hearing, sensing, knowing, being just one facet and then imperceptibly another and another until I was drawn out of myself but also still within.

I looked intently, focusing my whole being on the beautiful exquisiteness of the face of My Father, where all frequencies of light energy are shimmering gently, humming, throbbing, with an intensity of love's light.

I fell to my knees, undone, ruined, in total abject surrender, where my whole being was spaghetti-fied out into all things and all things became absorbed into the living light energy strings within my being.

I began to feel the oracles but this time I was the pentatonic scale, each note sounding, vibrating, resounding and resonating love's essence.
That moment was like a slowly drawn out moment representing the eternal age of perfection.

17 February 2020

I stood with my crystal sceptre before the Council of 70 to make representation on behalf of the Joshua generation and creation for the restoration of all things.

I sought for the increase in those crossing over into the heavenly realms and that the message of restoration would go to each stream.
Crossing the boundaries of the four streams, so the streams' banks would be broken and convergence would begin to take place.

The Council gave their approval and released their verdict as a ripple through all the heavenly realms and dimensions of space time.

They gave me the crown, which gave me access to my throne in the heaven of heavens, and I took my place.

I call for the truth of restoration to invade each stream.
I call for angelic messengers to visit those in each stream who are ready for deconstruction.

VISION DESTINY 2021 4

I call for the lightning bolts of heavenly truth to penetrate the closed minds to prepare them for the truth.

I call for the unveiling of restoration to be joined with the revelation of the mystic and eschatological truth.

I call for the grace necessary to remove the veils of darkness covering the minds of those blind to restoration within each stream.

I call for the season of grace to come into position and the greater grace to launch this season with limitlessness.

I was seated on my throne; from there I could see from a new perspective.

I saw spiritual beings in opposition to restoration within each stream.

I asked for a mandate to engage them. I received the mandate but I had to deal with the third fear angel first.

I sought the strategy for dealing with it in love.

Love from the realm of light would be the key to its restoration.

I stepped into the realm of light and love and absorbed the light energy to activate my energy gates.

I went to the cosmic bench to engage the two angels who were now restored so they would stand with me.

I called for fear to come to the light of the three.

It circled slowly until it was standing before us.

I released forgiveness, which was rejected but began a dialogue to offer restoration.

I drew closer and released the truth of the light realm as a burst of love that overwhelmed it and then I saw the opening to overshadow it with intimacy as I encompassed it with my spirit.

I felt its fear but now, armed with perfect love from my encounter in perfection, it cast out the fear.

The light of love had overcome and the scales of darkness flew off and beauty emerged.

A feminine light being of amazing beauty.

What a celebration I felt throughout the heavens! And the three joined to form an amazing connection and a sacred geometric pattern of such depth and complexity.

I commissioned them to engage the benches opposing restoration in each stream with the hope of their restoration.

Son, you have done well; keep up the pressure and passion for restoration within your own heart.

This is not a season, this is who you were created to be; so without fear, seated above, administrate restoration as an ambassador of that message.

February 18th 2020

Son, the restoration message is to become your primary focus beyond EG.

From the Oracles of Our heart you will be empowered to legislate and engage the powers in the Kingdom of God realm and the Elementals in the dimensional realms.

Generating and releasing the frequencies of the oracles will extend your boundaries beyond, so your focus will shift from preparation to legislation and government with others.

VISION DESTINY 2021 4

I was seated in the realm of perfection.

Take your seat in Our government and look at all the dimensions from this perspective: what do you see?

I saw the frequencies of rest in sonship crossing the dimensional matrixes at the quantum level. Swirling energy, carrying the message of hope for restoration through the veils of darkness, radiating love's light.

I saw the creational realities beginning to be transformed as the freedom of sonship begins to impact the Elementals.

Now, son, you can see you can choose those realities and legislate for them to increase and expand beyond through every level and dimension.

I call the sons to arise and take their places with you from all the streams of restoration.

I call into the mystics stream for sons to arise and take their positions of legislative authority.

I call into the universal stream for sons to arise and take their positions of legislative authority.

I call into the eschatological stream for the sons to arise and take their positions of legislative authority.

I call into energy healing stream for sons to arise and take their positions of legislative authority.

I expanded my spirit over the 4 streams and gave access to my frequency to call the sons to relational connection.

I call for the banks of the streams to break and the flows to merge into one flow of interaction and cross-pollination of relationship.

I call for the convergence of the four streams into one mighty river of restoration.

I reached out with my spirit to bypass the restrictions and limitations of the closed minds to touch the spirit of sonship within those who are the major ambassadors of the 4 streams.

Son, look for an opportunity to connect and share heart with ... to open dialogue.

Son, I have called you to legislate as an ambassador; shift your focus and spend more conscious time seated in the heaven of heavens, where you will have greater insight and greater capacity.

Son, you can also prepare each month; that will keep your focus up to date.

You are ready to engage with those in opposition to restoration in both the spiritual and physical realms.

Love's light will shine in you and from you to illuminate your spheres of influence but also to expand beyond to remove the darkness, restoring it back into light and revealing the truth to those shrouded by darkness in their minds.

I engaged the realm of light so I could more easily recognise the absence of light which was operating beyond the visible wavelengths.

I tuned my senses to different frequencies to detect the darkness which was felt rather than seen.

I scanned the spiritual atmosphere of the Kingdom of God to detect the voids that indicated where access portals were located.

VISION DESTINY 2021 4

Those voids were across the dimensions as pockets of darkness like vacuums drawing the light, like a magnet where opposites attract, and swallowing it up.

I detected the void associated with restoration and chose to engage it by activating my energy gates to a greater level; that created a field that matched the frequency of the void in the opposite.

I felt a greater intensity of the opposite spirit: in this case, love's light for restoration, activated by the five oracles.

I engaged the darkness by feeling. It was like an area of sensory deprivation with a total absence of passion, expressed as total apathy.

A complete absence of desire, expressed as total aversion.

A complete void of joy, expressed as deep depression.

A total absence of compassion, expressed as severe vengeance.

A total absence of love, expressed as deep hatred and fear.

Those feelings were the exact opposite of the Oracles and were like a dark cloud that was keeping the message of restoration hidden – but not just hidden, opposed – with such anger and hostility.

I withdrew from the void, armed with the insight I needed to overcome the darkness, with the frequencies of sonship, using the pentatonic scale of rotating energy fields of the Merkabah. Shifting harmonic frequencies like a shield.

Son, I have this to give you.

What is it?

It is a mystery.

Why would I need a mystery, Father?

Trust Me in this.

OK, I will receive this mystery.

The Father placed the mystery over me like a cloak or mantle but it completely shielded me from view.

It felt like an energy field that surrounded me, but also light that shines inwards, absorbing illumination.

I felt wisdom and knowledge and might, like I was cloaked with the seven spirits of God.

I had 7 eyes so I could see dimensionally. I had 7 heads, an increased consciousness, capacity and authority.

No one would be able to fathom this, including myself. Was this symbolic?, I thought, but it felt real, even if it looked surreal.

I thought I need to test it out, so seated on my new throne in the heaven of heavens, I looked to see with 7 eyes.

I saw the voids but this time clearly and how they formed a dimensional image like an inverse fractal. I went to the restoration void, passing through the shielded harmonics as if they were not even there.

I saw three fallen beings responsible for opposing the restoration of all things message

VISION DESTINY 2021 4

I felt no intimidation after my encounters with the light and now I was clothed with a mystery (like a dark cloud, but actually light) but not as I had seen before.

I spoke in a way I had never done before, able to communicate my deepest desire for restoration, forgiveness, oneness to the three who were knotted together like a Trinitarian knot. I overshadowed them within the mystery and all the light I had absorbed burst upon them with love's passionate, burning desire for their restoration.

The void was filled with an intensity of love's light that absorbed the darkness and there were the three most amazingly beautiful beings of light.

They asked if they could stay in the mystery until they were ready.

Ready for what I thought/asked (because they already knew my thoughts).

To be disconnected, to become how they were created: three, but governmentally and relationally one.

I said yes, even though I would need to meditate on what they meant.

I went back to my throne, where I could not see them but felt them, within the mystery but not within me.

I had created a safe house of sorts, an underground railroad for escaping fallen ones.

24 February 2020

Son, it is time to legislate for greater grace for the EG programme to reach the Joshua generation and become more effective in discipling to sonship.

Take your place and remove the barriers and open the doors to reach those beyond the valley of decision.

Extend your boundary into the religious institutions to open eyes and hearts to their destinies.

Son, your heart has changed and will continue to change as it is motivated by the oracles, so you can be an oracle of greater grace.

I went to the court of kings and took my place at the bench.

I focused my heart on limitless greater grace.

I felt inspired to produce the law of limitless greater grace

The law of limitless greater grace:

Context

The increase in grace needed to open those enslaved by the religious systems.

Permissions

You are authorised to remove the limitations placed on God's grace and mercy by religion.

You are authorised to reveal the true reality of God's love to be expressed through the oracles.

You are authorised to scandalise the lack of true grace within the religious systems.

You are authorised to expose the works based old covenant mindsets that religion uses to enslave people.

VISION DESTINY 2021 4

You are authorised to reveal that greater grace is unrestricted, unlimited and limitless in its ability to reveal the love of God.

You are authorised to unveil the lavishness of grace that abounds to overcome the lost identity that religion perpetuates.

You are authorised to challenge the religious mindsets with outrageous grace that reflects the Oracles of the heart of a wholly loving Father towards his children.

You are authorised to reveal examples of limitless grace from the cloud of witnesses.

You are authorised to assign legions of messenger angels to demonstrate limitless grace to the most undeserving in religion's eyes.

Jurisdiction - Creation

Consequences - An awakening in the religious institutions and extreme opposition from the religious and political spirits.

I went through the authorisation process and took the law into my heart and synchronised it with the cloak of mystery.

Son, if you are not criticised by religion, you have not gone far enough to reveal Our true love.

The Father asked me to engage John Newton, the ex-slaver who wrote the hymn Amazing Grace, to collate limitless grace examples so I could hear their stories.

I began to legislate from the throne of mystery within the heaven of heavens as I could see the absence of grace as pockets of darkness shrouding the minds of the enslaved.

I call for the light of truth to penetrate the religious institutions to unveil the full extent of God's love.

I call for the frequencies of sonship through the pentatonic oracles to resonate and destroy arguments and resistance to limitless grace.

I call for the cloud of witnesses to reveal stories of the extremes of grace.

I call for the songwriters of the religious systems to be inspired to write limitless grace songs to a new generation of enslaved and slavers.

I call for angelic legions to go forth to execute limitless grace acts.

I went into the consuming fire of God's loving presence and called for the worst of the worst to come forth and I preached the deep compassion of a loving Father.

I assigned angels to visit the worst towards all areas of society and culture with acts of extreme limitless grace.

25 February 2020

Son, the restoration of all things message needs demonstrations of limitless grace that will testify to the reality of the oracles of Our heart.

The testimonies can come from both sides of the veil and beyond, so gather those testimonies from all dimensions.

VISION DESTINY 2021 4

I will open up the connections needed to collate those beautiful stories of love's light restoring the lost and broken, fragmented children.

The mystic realm is where to begin as there is much recorded but you will need to engage to meet those dear sons.

Julian of Norwich, Jane Lead, Origen, Gregory, Athanasius, Irenaeus

John Newton has been at work and has many storytellers for you to meet.

Limitless grace must be scandalous and outrageous to the religious mindsets but joyful to the sons who are resonating with the Oracles of Our heart.

I went into the Court of the Upright where I met John Newton, who brought so many souls before me, all beaming, shining with joyful exuberance, waiting to tell their grace story.

I will share what happened in the next session.

I am that I am and I am is love

I am love and love is I am

Love is who I am and love is the motive of every desire, thought and action

I am that I am and I change not. I have always been and always will be love, as love is an eternal constant.

Live loved
