

VISION DESTINY 2020 3

I am going to review some of the things that were key in 2019

I will share my journals that will include:

What God said in 2019

What God did in 2019

What does that mean for 2020?

What heavenly season are we in now?

What has God said for 2020?

What does God want us to do in 2020?

Where does God want us to go in 2020?

Please don't believe anything I say just because I say it

If you resonate with anything I say in your spirit or if you object strongly to anything I share, take it back to God and openly ask Him to give you direct revelation

I can only share information about my revelation that has come through my personal encounters and experience

Only by engaging God yourselves can you have revelation, not information

We all need to know the truth

Some of the major themes during 2019

The restoration of all things

The oracles of the Father's heart

Love's light

Happy eschatology

Joshua generation arising in sonship

Son, it is the desire of My heart that all will be restored so that everything will be brought back to the original intention that was formed within the Perichoresis.

We expressed our loving desire within the circle of the dance

Only true, unconditional love can fully reveal My heart; and only love will express My intention.

True love is only found in relationship; it is lavishly expressed

The focus of love is otherly and is unconditional in nature.

Only a love that is truly unconditional expresses the precepts, statutes and laws that are the foundation of creation.

As soon as conditions are added to being loved, it is no longer love at all.

The path of the DIY tree operates on a system of man-imposed, conditional rewards and punishment

This creates a system that all religion is based upon.

This system brings fear and obligation

I have been misrepresented; and love has been perverted into a religious works-based concept, rather than the central relational core of the relationship of face to face innocence that is My intent.

Son, in 2019 make unveiling love's light your mission within the context of restoration.

Son, be at peace with those who are at war with you and honour those who dishonour you.

VISION DESTINY 2020 3

Son, legislate for the removal of the old systems so that new relationships can be revealed; but ensure this done in love and with honour.

Son, it is time to establish things on a new foundation.

I have given you this year to put all that is necessary in place so that there is a firm and solid foundation, spiritually and legally.

This will be the foundation for the future

Son, things have to get to a particular place for the motivation for change to be sufficient to make it possible. You are now at such a place and you have this year to bring about the changes necessary within the blueprint as a whole.

The foundations must be re-laid and the heart must be restored at the core so it can flow through all. Love must be at the centre of everything because I am love.

Love's light must shine through all and for all to be effective. All the relational issues must be brought into the light and resolved to go forward with the changes necessary.

Son, you must be bold in challenging and facilitating this process and do not hold back from bringing everything into the light of truth.

This process will bring things that are currently lawless back into order; with the precepts, statutes and laws as the foundation of all.

My heart must be restored to the centre of all activity and love must be the key factor.

The vision must be brought back to the representation of My heart as expressed in Isa 61 and beyond.

Son, there is a flaw that needs to be addressed which has caused love and honour – and therefore value – to be missing.

When people do not feel appreciated, their value is diminished and their heart is lost.

There is no investment in people and therefore no value given to staff; this must change.

There needs to be care and pastoral investment into the staff throughout the whole blueprint.

Son, love's light must be restored to the centre of everything; to reflect Me and our heart of love.

Son, empower the ambassadors to function independently of you; set the agenda and allow them to develop and outwork it.

Son, help support people in their strategy for laying a new foundation on which the Ekklesia and the Embassy of heaven can be established.

Work with those who specifically know that I am calling them to be part of a Bench of three with the wisdom both spiritually and legally.

Give them an overview of how the ministries of the church are supposed to function spiritually and legally. Remind them that I would rather have an amateur in the new than a professional in the old.

Remind them that they were called into the kingdom for a time such as this and they have My full confidence.

Son, encourage others to join the process for this new relational foundation; and help them with legislation and the use of legislation, using your statute book as an example

VISION DESTINY 2020 3

Governmental authority is an identity and position issue: know who you are and know where your identity positions or seats you.

Take the scrolls and laws into who you are and release them from within who you are from where you are seated as a flow of declaratory decrees in heaven into the earth.

Be the gateway for those decrees to be established from heaven into the earth.

We have no recognised authority in heaven unless it is operating in our daily lives; as the authority of a bench is just an outworking of identity and personal authority.

Son, this year is a key season both for your life and for the Ekklesia; there is an opportunity for new identity to be established both for you and the Ekklesia.

Identity is an outworking of destiny which has eternal purpose in the convergence of eternity and time. This year is a kairos time opportunity: make the most of it; put in the time for relationship and strategic government.

Son, encourage My children that they need not fear responsibility but can use the authority as the ability to respond to the strategic positions they are in.

Son, establish a strategy for relationship to develop foundationally

This strategy is for:

Those in the process of laying a new foundation

Those who are, and will be, living sacrifices

This is a strategy for government: use legislation to create, establish or remove

What is the vision for the blueprint? Is it written clear and plain so that you and others can understand and use it?

How are you going to use current or future legislation to prepare for the fulfilment in heaven?

How are you going to cooperate with the angelic realm and cloud of witnesses to effectively use their support?

Develop a strategy with equal focus on both maintenance and growth

Strategy for communication and encouragement of present people

Use the equipping track for ministry and discipleship

Son, righteousness and justice are key foundations that are perfect expressions of love.

Righteousness must be operating at the centre of all organisations and must be seen to be transparent and open.

Son, there is clearly unrighteousness and relational issues throughout the organisations: this must be addressed to enable fresh foundations to be laid.

Discord and disharmony causes blockages

If there is suspicion and unforgiveness, these issues will need to be addressed

Openness, honesty and transparency are keys to relationship

If there is dishonesty and deception in the foundations, it will also be in the building

Son, if the foundations are not relationally and spiritually solid, then what is built will not be able to grow the way you and I desire.

VISION DESTINY 2020 3

Son, call forth the Joshua Generation to arise in India and China and South America and Africa as in all the families of the earth.

Son, FAM is a vehicle for your ministry, based on our relationship and the revelation that I am revealing to you.

Do not let others hijack that mission for self-interest.

Use 'living loved, loving living and living loving' as your strap line.

Free to be is who you need to be: don't allow anyone or anything other than Me to control or direct the course of your life.

Follow your destiny and fulfil your role as a son within My kingdom.

Son, don't be sidetracked by the agenda of others; focus on fulfilling your destiny, both within and without the Freedom blueprint.

Son, releasing and equipping the Joshua Generation is still to be your priority and meditation will become a large part of that ministry.

Son, you cannot leave your responsibilities until it is safe to do so and when things are in safe hands.

I will clearly show you when that is the case; until then pursue righteousness and justice in love.

Love must be the motivating factor for all that you do and your heart must be at peace for love to flow.

Forgive and release, for blessing must be the state of your heart so you can be objective to establish the truth in love.

Son, I am is at rest and at work in rest. That is the key to living life in a fulfilled and contented way. Son, seek to do the same.

Live from the centre of our being within the circle of the dance and our conversation.

Son, live empowered from within our thoughts and let those thoughts keep you in love, joy and peace which are the foundations of rest.

Rest is an expression of trust in Me and our ability to protect, provide and direct.

Rest is trusting that I am good and all that I do is motivated by love and is designed to bless you and enable you to be a blessing to others and to creation itself.

Son, you have only just begun to engage the surface of My love; you will be able to plumb the depths of love as deep is calling you to come deeper into Me.

Son, you can't even begin to imagine how deep is My love as I am infinite: there is no end, no bottom, no sides to My love.

Love is infinite and therefore can never run out, can never be overcome, can never be escaped, can never be finite or explainable but can be experienced.

Son, it is only love that can truly redeem, reconcile and restore and bring about the transformation of those who are lost in self-identity, futility and vanity, therefore broken, fragmented and separated in their own minds.

Son, I am love; therefore love is the only power in all of creation that can restore My lost children back to My gloriously intended sonship.

Son, there is no end, there is no beginning, there is just I am; and you are in the centre of My heart's desire and vast thoughts in face to face innocence.

VISION DESTINY 2020 3

Son, live from within the rest of love's embrace: live loved, love living and live loving.
The foundation that you are looking to establish must be the model of rest for each and every component part of each organisation.

Openness, honesty, transparency, love, forgiveness; enacted in reality.
Spiritual heavenly authority, foundationally and practically, as the relational DNA running through each component part of everything

Son, it is better to have people involved who are relational and have the right heart and will operate righteously than people with the right skills and the wrong heart who you can't trust.

Son, your ongoing spiritual input is vital, so having tested you to see your willingness to let it all go, I will now direct and guide you as to what and where I want you to focus on in the future.

Son, it is time to understand more about the fallen dimensions that seek redemption from the choices their ancestors made.

News of freedom will spread as the light of sonship shines brightly and the sound frequency of liberty produces hope to all who are looking for the sons of God to come.

The stories of the shining ones are embedded as truth within the history and mythology of all dimensions and seekers of truth are finding them.

The frequency of hope is beginning to resonate across the dimensions.

I engaged the portals to 'beyond beyond' and entered the dimension of the second humanoid race but it was empty, devoid of light and love.

The dimension seemed sterile, devoid of emotion and loveless. People I observed were enslaved without hope.

They had no life in their eyes because love had been eradicated as an emotion and there was no word within their vocabulary.

Their culture and society is technologically advanced but there is no joy, no expressions of art; all is purely functional.

There is no nature, no signs of other lifeforms, the sky is dark and overcast, permanently grey.

All power is drawn from within and the energy is being drained

I met the representative and he led me to a meeting of others. All seemed life less devoid of emotion.

The absence of love is tangible. Empty, hollow eyes stare at me.

I felt so sad drawn into the emptiness but then started to feel compassion. It started to rise up in me and made me angry at the loss of love.

I started to pulsate and light began to energise and like a electromagnetic pulse love's light went forth like a love bomb: I exploded with light and love.

The energy of love's light illuminated the room with love. Emotions were felt for the first time and life began to spark.

I saw faces begin to show a flicker of emotional response as love's light dispelled the darkness of their soul, as hope was felt.

I now talked of love and the creator and the foundation stone of love's sacrifice.

Sacrifice is impossible without love and now my words had meaning as the truth of love started to shine.

VISION DESTINY 2020 3

I unveiled love's truth and nature with stories which were myths – there is no connection without feelings. The revolution has begun; the seeds of emotion are sown and hope springs forth as love's light is released.

Faces, no longer with dead eyes, no longer lifeless; the power of love had been released and my task is done. I expressed a smile and there was a flicker of response that showed me love has returned, and the infection of the leaven of love has begun to spread.

I returned through the portal, the Father was waiting for me with a broad smile and a loving embrace. I felt the pleasure of His heart and I was filled (having been drained by the experience).

Son, don't go without being connected to me as the source of love, just as your soul is quantum entangled with your spirit; be entangled with Me, so love is always flowing and light is always shining.

The golden cord is not just a guideline but a lifeline, and I desire constant, unbroken connection. Son, ensure you are acting in love and forgiveness and ensure righteousness is your motivation.

Son, honesty and openness are what you are seeking to bring by addressing the issues in an upfront way; don't be intimidated by the veiled challenging of your motives.

Value and worth must never be measured by financial reward and any competition or jealousy must be eliminated.

Son, I am with you in this challenge. Stay in the place of rest and let My love motivate you and guide you to do the right things in the right way.

Son, the preparation for sonship must include identity, character, core soul issues, position, mandates, wisdom, knowledge and understanding, protocols of courts and legislative processes. All of these areas contribute to overall maturity levels of sonship.

I have challenged you to focus on these issues as a priority because the foundations are being re-established and things are coming into the light that need to be addressed.

Son, love must be the motive; but love is the perfect expression of righteousness and love motivates change. There must be no appearance of evil or wrongdoing within all the parts of the organisation and therefore everything needs to be brought out into the open.

Son, everything could come tumbling down or this could be the moment people step up and take responsibility to move things forward. Which reality do you choose?

Son, look at the financial motives of your heart as you move towards retirement age: do you trust Me for your blessing and provision?

I will direct you, so do nothing on your own initiative but let Me give you the solutions as the problems emerge.

Son, call those who will respond to the call to responsibility within the Joshua Generation for a fresh start and a new beginning.

A new sound can go forth: the sound of hope. This sound will draw different people because it is resonating with truth and righteousness.

Clear away the effects of deception, deal with the accusations and restore righteousness to the foundation. Deal with accusations; restore what can be restored and deal with destiny robber so that I can pour out My blessing upon you.

VISION DESTINY 2020 3

Son, you do not need to resign: in fact I give you the mandate to provide the stabilising influence at the core. Son, I needed to get your attention to focus on uncovering and laying a new foundation.

There must be honesty and trust foundationally within the blueprint; this is the first step to achieving this. Don't hold back on declaring an amnesty to bring everything into the light.

Son, keep your heart attitude right but seek for righteousness in every area. There will be more that has been dishonest that will come to light: seek recompense using the law of retribution.

Son, I love you let Me fill you with My love. Feel the warmth of My embrace; let love's essence flow through your veins as a life giving stream. Feel My oracles, the foundation of My relationship with all My children.

My passion for you
My burning desire for you to be loved
My intense joy of having you as My child
My deep compassion for you to be whole and one
My overwhelming, unconditional love wants to bring good to your life

My oracles are to be the foundation of all your relationships and how my sons feel about creation and its restoration
Passion, desire, joy, compassion and love are the 5 oracles that must be experienced in heaven and displayed on the earth.
All legislation from heaven must be motivated and inspired by My oracles for it to manifest on the earth.

The order of Melchizedek is where 3 becomes 4 and functions in the 5 oracles and is administered by 7. This is the pattern of all heavenly and earthly government and it is the oracles that have been missing from the foundations.

Only in deep, face to face intimacy with Me can My oracles be experienced and then freely demonstrated in response. You can love because I, who am love, have loved you first. No one can know true love apart from Me and no one can truly love without first being loved by Me. True love must be unconditional love or it is not love at all but only a very pale reflection of who I am.

Love that is not lavish, abundantly overflowing, seemingly wastefully given and totally undeserved is not Me. Oh, how religion has turned this most amazing and wonderful truth about love and therefore about Me into the dead works of appeasement and law-driven obedience through fear!

Son, know this: that the perfect love that is I am, casts out and removes all vestiges of fear from within relationship. All religion operates using fear as its motivating force and I am is pouring out the wrath of love upon those trapped in fear to bring them into the glorious liberty of love.

Live loved
Love living
Living loving
