

VISION DESTINY 2020 4

I am going to review some of the things that were key in 2019
I will share my journals that will include:
What God said in 2019
What God did in 2019
What does that mean for 2020?

What heavenly season are we in now?
What has God said for 2020?
What does God want us to do in 2020?
Where does God want us to go in 2020?

Please don't believe anything I say just because I say it
If you resonate with anything I say in your spirit or if you object strongly to anything I share, take it back to God and openly ask Him to give you direct revelation

I can only share information about my revelation that has come through my personal encounters and experience
Only by engaging God yourselves can you have revelation, not information
We all need to know the truth

Some of the major themes during 2019
The restoration of all things
The oracles of the Father's heart
Love's light
Happy eschatology
Joshua generation arising in sonship

Son, it is time to focus on going beyond in all areas.
Legislate for the time to fulfil all that needs to be done, in all situations, in rest.
Rest, rest, rest; live in My love, joy and peace and live loved, love living and live loving.

Apply this to every area of your being and flow from the abundance of life energy that is available in Me.
I am an inexhaustible supply; live and move and have your being in Me.
Son, if you take the i out of live and replace it with o representing Our being you have love which is the essence of Our very nature.

You cannot live loved in the old covenant; that is why it was fulfilled in Jesus, passed away, and is now obsolete.
So many of My children are living under its law and rules rather than living under grace.

The new covenant of grace now in force empowers you to respond to My unconditional love and be sons who can express unconditional love and truly represent Me as the light of the world.
If My children live in unconditional love they will shine with love's light and the world will be able to know Me.

Son, obedience and obligation is replaced by desire and joyful opportunity empowered by grace, which is My divine enabling power. That is what it is to live loved in the new covenant.
It is free from living a law-based, rule-based, performance-driven, guilt-driven life to embrace the true freedom of sonship.

VISION DESTINY 2020 4

Live in the rest of living in love, joy and peace in Me; having ceased from striving to attain identity from the DIY source and resting in being who I created you to be.
Rest from the DIY path and let Me reveal your true identity in a restored face to face, intimate innocence.

Son, you don't have to be obedient to earn My love and favour; I always have your best interests at heart. The need to be obedient comes from an old covenant perspective that does not have Me dwelling within to inspire through intimate love.

When you choose freely to fulfil your destiny that was agreed within My heart, you will be fulfilled, contented and joyful.
There is no carrot-and stick approach with Me, just a revealing of My heart to create desire; not external laws to create obedience through obligation and fear.

Love is always My way and My love truly experienced will cause a positive response that surrenders and abandons itself to love's best - that is, My good and perfect will.

Phil 2:13 for it is God who is at work in you, both to will and to work for His good pleasure.
Phil 2:13 (Mirror Bible) Discover God himself as your inexhaustible inner source; he ignites you with both the desire and energy that matches his own delight!

Son, intimate heart to heart relationship ignites passion and desire from within; there is no need for external systems of control to motivate when love produces the response.

Love is the essence of grace and mercy which will always triumph over the fear of judgment to motivate and empower.
Son, seek Me first and I will reveal My heart to you and knowing My heart will enable you to see what I am doing and what your part is in that kingdom picture.

Knowing Me will enable you to know you and your heart's desires will be aligned to mine; heart to heart intimacy creates desire motivated by love
That desire will inspire passion; in the knowledge that My will has been, is, and always will be, a demonstration of My love.

Son, I desire relationship with sons; not servants, and certainly not slaves
So rules, laws and fatalistic obedience are not My design but they are religious constructs of the DIY tree.

Relationship requires love, mutual honour and respect for cooperation: this is the way the kingdom functions.
The new covenant age is the age of open access to My heart; this will inspire desires that are from the response to My love.

There is but one mediator, who is the one door through which the sheep of every fold can enter
He has been the eternal sacrifice and His blood is always on the foundation stone of creation.

Our love has made a way for all Our children to return to the circle of the dance from which they were birthed.
Our love has never been closed or framed by laws but has always made it possible for redemption, reconciliation and restoration.

VISION DESTINY 2020 4

Son, I am determined to see all religious, cultural, racial and social restrictions removed; and every obstacle demolished; and every barrier and hindrance torn down by the power of love to overcome and restore, to bring good into the lives of all My children.

Love is the only power that can triumph over all things to restore all things and bring all things back to My original intent and purpose, which is face to face innocence in relationship.

When I speak I don't make demands, threats or ultimatums.

I communicate My loving desires to inspire the creative, willing participation of My children in the greatest adventures of restoration

Son, I told you that pruning was necessary but as usual there was more to My meaning than you could imagine or think.

The foundation has to be in all and through all, to enable things to stabilise and the relationships that are needed to be formed.

Son, what I am doing with you I will need to do in all and through all, to free My children from the old covenant thinking that they have been living according to.

The new covenant of grace must be free from the infiltration of the leaven of the religious and the political spirit that seeks to limit and restrict the authority of My children to that of servants and slaves who are trapped in a system that is obsolete and faded away.

My children are hidden from the world that they are destined to shine brightly as light in, because they are under a cover of religious veils.

I have called for a rising and shining of love's light but there has been a retreating back to the bondage of DIY religion.

The light of truth that reveals Me as love has been turned into a mere shadow that has limited or twisted the truth.

Son, the wisdom that comes from above will bring love, joy and peace; all other, human wisdom will lead to strife and enmity.

My heavenly and eternal wisdom is available to all My children if they will pursue seeking first My kingdom in relationship.

True wisdom is released from heart to heart and face to face intimacy.

Seeking for help without relationship will only perpetuate the old ways of obligation and duty.

There is no joy and peace in religion and love can never be unconditional if it is associated with obedience or sacrifice.

My love is designed to motivate and inspire My children to desire as a response by freely receiving to freely give.

Son, trust is the key in everything and through everything because trust is relational.

In the situations that you face, you need to trust Me; because you know My heart, you can legislate for the reality that best reflects My love.

Love is the goal of all that you are doing because true love demonstrated is revealing Me.

My desire for all My children is that they know Me and are restored to full, mature sonship.

VISION DESTINY 2020 4

Son, passion, burning desire, intense joy, deep compassion and overwhelming love are the oracles that motivate all My dealings with My children and the whole of creation.

I call My sons to be Oracles to creation

As you have heart to heart encounters with Me, these oracles will become the principles of your life and the restoration of all things will be your passion and burning desire.

Son, you have felt the intensity of My love in encounters but there are more to come if you stay close to My heart.

You have only experienced My love from the perspective of your emotions and your mind to the level that your unexpanded consciousness could cope with.

There are deeper emotions and higher thoughts that love will inspire if you trust Me and allow Me to motivate your reactions and decisions.

Son, rest with Me and rest in I am, as all the wisdom you need is available.

Consider the heavenly, not just earthly, perspective before any decisions are made.

The wisdom you need comes from above and that may be at odds with natural wisdom.

Son, trust Me and I will release all that you need to fulfil all that I am calling you to do.

Seek Me for the wisdom that will unveil what I am calling you to do.

The blueprint that you have requires heavenly governmental authority to be in operation for it to be fulfilled.

Heavenly government needs a reflection on earth which is the foundation that provides the stability for everything that the blueprint authorises and mandates.

Son, your trust was not justified for as much as you sought to be open and honest that was not reciprocated and there was deception and self-interest in operation.

I am removing those flaws and replacing them with a new, relational foundation that will truly reflect I am.

Son, fruitfulness is not far away from pruning when the seasons change.

Call for the change of seasons.

I call for the winds of change to blow powerfully to bring an end to the old season and the beginning of the new.

I call for the pruning of the old, diseased wood from the blueprint.

I call for new, healthy growth to come forth

I call for heaven's fertiliser to be poured out and the conditions for growth to come forth

I call for a new clarity of purpose to come forth

I call for the removal of all that was infected to create fresh, vigorous growth.

I call for the alignment of the circle of the deep for the precepts, statutes and laws to open the ordinances of heaven to come forth

Son, Ireland is steeped in the traditions of men and controlled by the religious spirit, so be careful how much you share and about what.

Your visit is an introduction to sonship and the heavenly realms

Inspire and encourage intimacy and responsibility.

VISION DESTINY 2020 4

Your mandate is to encourage, not challenge unnecessarily; but you have to reveal My true nature as love to free them from the angry God.

You can reveal My oracles and focus on My passion and burning desire for My children and creation.

It is not time for spiritual warfare or the courts and justice but grace and mercy.

Legislate for the release of My love at a new and unprecedented level to create face to face relationship.

I am love, I am light, I am spirit and I am a consuming fire; introduce them to I am and I will do the rest.

I call for the love bombs and lightning bolts of heaven to penetrate the veils of religious darkness over those who will attend the conferences

I call for the power of love to reveal the truth about the true essence of I am

I call for love encounters at a new level of intimacy to resonate within their hearts and minds

I release the sound of freedom and jubilee into the atmosphere around the conference

Son, the tide is turning and the blessing will begin to flow when all the obstacles are removed.

The hindrances to blessing have used the political spirit to control and manipulate within the foundations.

You must remove the legal rights from within and from without and deal with destiny robber.

What has been exposed must be cleared away for the new foundations to be laid and for new growth to begin.

I told you that there would need to be pruning and that has needed to be a hard cutting back because the disease was spreading.

The removal of all the diseased material temporally weakens things but new strength will rise from the joy of the freedom that will come.

The destabilising affect will be short-lived and new, vigorous growth will begin as winter is over and the spring time is coming.

Son, don't take your eyes off things; keep focused, so you can be more discerning.

Stability and peace must be restored to refocus and come back to the heart of My original intention for Freedom.

Announce a Jubilee, the end of the old and the beginning of the new, through the returning of what has been lost, stolen or forgotten.

I call for jubilee. I release the sound of freedom

I call for the end of the old and the beginning of a new season

I call for the removal of the political spirit from our midst

I call for the dawning of a new day

I call for restoration and restitution

I call for the cancellation of the debts of the old order

I call for the favour and blessing of God to be restored.

I call for the Freedom angels to go forth and gather the harvest into the storehouse

I call for the resources of heaven to be made ready and the storehouse to be opened for jubilee to manifest

I call for the manifestation of love to be joyously released and heaven's blessing to be poured out

I call for an open heaven and the opening of the everlasting doors

VISION DESTINY 2020 4

I call for the light of love and truth to shine brightly so we can arise and shine and demonstrate the true heart and love of God to our blueprint

I went beyond beyond again, through the portal into a dimension that is deeply divided and functions by serfdom.

There is rural living for the masses but extreme opulence and high technology for the few.

There is the connection of the tower that I felt and sensed but could not see.

I felt the worst of all divisive systems that was in place: the caste system, slavery, racism, serfdom, segregation, apartheid: all the worst that the DIY tree path has created; are all mirrored here.

There is no religion here but there is the worst of all political systems of control that maintains the power of the few over the many through laws that oppress institutionally.

The educational system is designed to segregate through the lack of knowledge keeping the classes divided. All creativity is suppressed; no one is allowed to think beyond the limits of their education, which is purely to function according to class.

They all have bowed heads, fixed on the ground and never looking up; that is the law and punishable by death.

No one of the lower classes was allowed to speak as no language was taught or allowed. Work training was the only education allowed.

The oppression of the many by the few - and even within the many, there are deep, racial and cultural divides.

Oppression clothes the air like a thick, heavy blanket of despair, choking out all hope.

I found a small gathering of representatives from each of the groups, including the ambassador that I had met before.

Sonship and love's light is breaking through, the different dimensions of creation poisoned by the DIY tree are now being infiltrated by the first glimpses of hope.

The frequency of hope is coming through as the sons of God arise with restored identity and position.

I began to speak but not so much with words but with communication that is heart to heart.

I shared oneness, integration, wholeness, peace. I began to radiate the multicoloured, multifaceted, manifold nature of creation, affirming uniqueness and diversity as the expression of an infinite, living God.

The very connection between dimensions of the poisoned tree can be used for good if the sons of God arise and take their places within the Tree of life.

I saw the shackles begin to break and oppression's heavy weight lift. They all began to look up for the first time to a new vista, a new horizon and a new hope.

The seeds have been sown and my job done; now hope will spread and the many will be united to throw off the shackles of the few.

They now saw each other for the first time and celebrated their diversity; and began to form a common language of honour, respect and love that will unite them heart to heart.

Sonship is infiltrating creation with the sound frequency and light of jubilee; the cry of freedom is beginning to resonate beyond, to the dimensions groaning under the DIY tree oppression.

VISION DESTINY 2020 4

Son, don't allow disillusionment to cause you to leave your rest; I am your place of rest.
Son, only within Me can you live loved, love living and living loving and be at rest

Son, don't become weary of doing good and so leave the rest that you are living in.
All that is around you may seem to be anything but restful but I am is still at work within all the chaos to still the storm.

'Peace, be still'. I am is calling all to enter My rest and have their souls restored by lying down in green pasture within the flow of the river of life.
Son, be still, cease striving; be, and the rest of love, joy and peace will restore you to sonship

Son, maintain honour and focus on what I have called you to do in equipping the Joshua Generation in the simplicity of a love relationship to live in rest.
Son, stay in rest as a living sacrifice and life in abundance will flow from your innermost being and love's light will radiate.

Son, I am love and I love you; stay within the circle of our love and you will be at rest.
Son, you have entered rest; you know what it is to be loved and you know what it is to be responsible, with My yoke easy and My burden light.

Do not take on responsibilities that are not yours to carry and do not carry others' burdens, as that is My responsibility.
Son, I know you are disappointed by those who you respected but don't let that cause you to leave the rest that is within Me.

I have opened an opportunity to connect and gather others; trust Me, as there is a greater purpose that your presence will fulfil for those who have connected with you.
Son, bless them with the simplicity of being at rest in love, joy and peace.

Son, legislate for rest into the mire of the political and religious spirit that you are now aware of and bless those who are in opposition.
I desire honour and relationship; so maintain respect, even for those who are emotionally so immature and competitive.

I entered into the place of rest, seated, ceasing from works of the DIY tree of self
I sat at rest, being blessed in love, joy and peace
I decreed a season of rest, for the end of striving to enter

I decree for the frequency of heaven's call for rest to go forth
I call forth rest into the political and religious spirit battleground of jealousy and envy
I call forth deeper rest to engage the hearts and minds of God's children

I call for a higher state of rest for those still seeking earthly recognition
I call for a greater state of rest for those weary and burdened by the concerns of the world
I call for a state of fuller rest to envelop God's children in a spiritual covering of love, joy and peace

I call for those in the wilderness to follow the sound of rest calling them into the promised land
I call for the unveiling of rest at a new level and a new state of consciousness to be revealed and experienced
Let the sound of rest that is beginning to resonate in heaven be released into the earth

VISION DESTINY 2020 4

I call for rest and restoration in all battlegrounds; and for blessing and comfort to come to those who are suffering from the political spirit

I call for blessing and honour to those benches that have stood their ground in spite of pressure, manipulation and control

I call love bombs to explode over those who have felt hurt and disappointed by the religious system and who are operating in the political spirit

Live loved

Love living

Live loving

Rest
