

I am going to review some of the things that were key in 2020

I will share my journals; that will include:

What God said in so far 2020

What God did in so far 2020

What does that mean for 2021?

27 August

Son, maintain a stance of honour towards all and you will receive the blessing of who that person is. There is no need to be concerned about mixture as We will filter out anything that may be dangerous if you keep your heart right.

Son, we have created so much diversity to reflect the manifoldness of who We are; so from your perspective there seem to be many strange packages that the message comes in but that is just to test the heart.

Be careful not to reject or accept the message because of the messenger: test it by the frequency it carries.

The genuine will always carry Our frequency; so the more deeply you are intimate with who We are, the easier discernment will be.

Son, test everything with a loving –not suspicious – heart and you will resonate with what is genuine and feel the love on it.

An absence of love will enable you to discern error and mixture but you can still honour the messenger by the way you accept or reject the message.

Son, legislate for peace during these times of anger by forgiving those behind and in the centre of the issue.

Change will come as the divisions are exposed, brought into the light and reconciled through forgiveness.

The violent extremes are not necessary for change (but We will still use them); but be aware and legislate with Our heart.

The political spirit will be operating overtly during the US election season and there will be so many seeking advantage through the troubles, so be vigilant.

The political and religious spirit thrives on competition and conflict through self-righteousness that is prominent during election seasons.

Always seek for Our heart and purpose by seeing the bigger picture; do not get drawn into political ideological debate that is usually fear driven.

Son, have no allegiances other than to Our Kingdom; do not form political, ideological or theological allegiances, as they will cloud your discernment.

Seek love and focus on Our bigger agenda to navigate the way through the troubled waters that will be ahead.

This time of great shifting and shaking will not be a short season, as there are so many things which need to be reset and recalibrated to move towards Kingdom government.

The old systems must be shaken and removed, so keep shielding the earth from external interferences and keep releasing love into the earth.

The perfect love that is who We are within I am is the only antidote to the fear and anger that seeks to take advantage by creating division and competition.

Son, collaborate with Union and Limitless to enable the peaceful transition during the shift the cosmos is going through.

What is occurring during this period is touching the dimensions powerfully through those of Our sons who understand the times and the seasons.

Be vigilant and diligent during this season of great change where many are standing on shifting sands and feel very insecure.

The dampening waves of love are key to limiting the negative affects during this turbulent season of cosmic transformation.

Live loved, love living and live loving as an oracle of Our heart.

Son, the truth is love, grace is love, mercy is love: all of Our attributes, precepts, character and nature are love.

They may be named differently but in reality We are love: that is why the restoration of all things is inevitable.

Son, be passionate about life and desire the restoration of all things as We do, so that it motivates your life; but enjoy life, as joy is an expression of unconditional love.

Son, Our children seek after happiness but lack real joy because they do not know unconditional love and are trying to find it by walking the wrong path.

Experiencing unconditional love is the only way Our children will truly know their identity as Our sons.

Son, the shift needs to continue; there is more shaking that is needed for the transformation to be effective.

The old systems are clinging onto their positions and their agendas are veiled behind the distractions of the divisive conflicts that are widespread globally.

Son, do not be associated with anything that promotes war at any level; be at peace with all things. Spiritual warfare is an oxymoron as it is impossible to be truly motivated spiritually and be at war.

Continue to promote love and demonstrate limitless grace through forgiving everyone and everything unconditionally.

Son, it will get darker before the dawn breaks through and the light of love shines brightly through Our sons demonstrating limitless grace.

Son, the present situation is just one of the many needed to shake the world out of its complacency and self-reliance to seek for the Truth, so do not fight it.

Legislate for the shaking to be effective and for good to come from it but not for its change.

Son, limitless grace is the divine power to overcome every obstacle and hindrance to the restoration of relationship that we desire and intend for all Our children and all that We have created.
Sin is the lost identity of being made in Our image, not behaviour.

If sin is lost identity then grace is restoration of the true image of sonship.
If sin is separation, from man's perspective, then grace is reconciliation.
If sin causes guilt, shame and condemnation then grace is forgiveness.

If sin causes death then grace is abundant life.
If sin and death came through Adam then life came through Jesus.
If sin causes toxic thinking then grace renews the mind.

If sin causes unrighteousness then grace is justification.
If grace cannot overcome sin then We cannot be omnipotent as sin would then be more powerful to separate than We are to reconcile and restore.

Whatever the results of sin, grace is limitless in its capacity to overcome it and restore relationship between Our children and Us.
There is no state or behaviour that is powerful enough to keep Us from Our children.

Sin is empowered by the DIY tree law-based mindset that creates a separation that requires sacrifice; but that tree is cursed and has no real power, just illusion and deception.
Where sin has abounded, grace is limitless, lavish and abundantly able to even greater abound.

Son, religion of all kinds uses the concept of sin and separation to create the need for duty, obligation, appeasement, sacrifice and service and a performance-driven life.

Limitless grace uses the concepts of forgiveness, reconciliation, justification and restoration to reveal unconditional love that releases joy and peace to enable rest.

Limitless grace guarantees the restoration of all things, motivated and empowered by the unconditional love that We have for creation.
Son, look deep into My eyes and feel the unconditional love that motivates and empowers limitless grace.

As looked, I went deeper and deeper into that unconditional love; the realisation of the overwhelming power and limitless of grace became even clearer.
That clarity of thought brought the following conclusion:

The restoration of all things is inevitable eventually because love wins and grace overcomes.
Limitless grace will secure a restored relationship between the Father and all His children and the Creator's original intention and purpose for creation, by whatever means that are necessary.

Son, the shift that is taking place has not finished: there are more waves to come, so legislate for the changes and transformations still needed to bring a fuller recalibration.

Personally focus your attention on turning division into union and competition into covenant in all areas of your life to restore relationship at all levels.

The priorities of Our children need to change to focus on what really matters, which is relationship and true rest in love, joy and peace.

Son, ministry and the institution of church have occupied most of your life, as with many: now is the time to re-evaluate.

It is time for true reality in multidimensional living so you can fully enjoy the bliss of rest from your labours to just be.

I have shielded you from the knowledge of just what you are accomplishing as a nonlinear being in the spiritual realms by just giving you glimpses.

I will take the blinkers off your mind so your consciousness can expand to take in multidimensional reality and so truly appreciate your capacity as a mature son of God.

In that moment I became aware of who I am and what I am doing at a higher level of consciousness in an expanded state of reality.

I am, therefore I exist in manifoldness, just like my Dad, in nonlinear quantum moments of the fulfilment of my destiny.

I am quantumly entangled multidimensionally with the eternal now, Cradle of Life, sound of many waters waterfall, Chamber of Destiny and the Chamber of Creation continually, in just one of many realities.

I am also quantumly entangled multidimensionally with the eternal now, throne of grace, judgment seat, altar of fire, fire stones and my heaven of heavens throne in another reality set.

I am also quantumly entangled multidimensionally with the eternal now, four faces of God within YHVH, Court of the Councils of the Fathers, Court of Kings, Chancellors' Court and my mountain thrones in another quantum moment.

I am also quantumly entangled multidimensionally with the eternal now, the Circle of the deep, 12 High Chancellors' Houses and the Council of 70 in another quantum moment.

I am also quantumly entangled multidimensionally with the eternal now, Court of the Upright, the Cloak of Mystery dark cloud, Wisdom's Heights and the Consuming Fire of Love in another quantum moment.

I am also quantumly entangled multidimensionally with the eternal now, the beyond beyond dimensional anteroom and many dimensions in another quantum moment.

I am also quantumly entangled multidimensionally with the eternal now, Wisdom's Heights, the ancient paths, the four doors, and the Earth shield in another quantum moment.

I am also quantumly entangled multidimensionally with the eternal now, the Father's garden, the Elementals' 7 thrones and creation in another quantum moment.

I am also quantumly entangled multidimensionally with the eternal now, my own spirit first love place, Garden of my Heart, Dance Floor, Soaking Room, Bridal Chamber, Merkabah, Tree of Life, 7 energy gates and expanded spirit spheres in another quantum moment.

My heart filled with joy and I sank deeper and blissfully into rest but at the same time was so excited by this revelation that I could hardly contain myself.

Son, see how easy it is to just be; and this is just a glimpse of what it is to be I am that I am, that you will ascend to when you become an ascended father.

Son, learn to become aware of multidimensional reality but always stay in rest, living in love, joy and peace within.

Be balanced by the Tree of Life in the union between your spirit, soul and body.

As you expand your spirit's boundaries, practise expanding your consciousness to become more aware of the dimensional realities that you are mandated to govern in.

All you learn to do as a son, made in Our image, with creative abilities, will equip you to become an ascended father in the ages to come.

Son, the true authority of a son is realised through surrender, not service; so abandon yourself totally to just being.

Our nature as I am that I am is the model and pattern for Our children to follow as sons; just learn to be, to be, to be, at rest in who you are.

All the doing in the world will not enable you to be but being who you were created to be will enable all the effective doing from total rest.

It is the frequency of rest that creation needs, to become still so it can rest from its groaning. Son, remember that you are designed to be limitless in unconditional love, grace and mercy, overflowing in lovingkindness.

Lovingkindness is the true hallmark of Our nature and that is new covenant reality, free from all DIY tree law-based knowledge.

Son, you are slowly learning to see creation through Our loving eyes so that the oracles of Our heart will be your inspiration.

Inspired by lovingkindness everything is limitless; there are no restrictions, so free your mind from impossibilities and choose a reality that reflects true new Covenant unconditional love.

Son, come walk with Me.

We walked in the Father's garden: it was beautiful beyond description

I began to feel the pleasure of the Father and creation's pleasure.

This was another creation-connecting experience.

Everything was communicating with me as we walked; it was sensory overload in a good way as I felt the emotions of each living thing.

The garden was singing to me its joy that the Father was enjoying it and that I was enjoying it.

Son, sonship must focus beyond the restoration of creation to the joy set before it of the union of all things.

You have begun to experience enjoying life every day in the rest of multidimensional living through being creative.

Son, do not hold back on your creativity as that is what life is supposed to be about; the restoration process is not an end in itself but is only so life can return to Our image.

Everyone is individually crafted and wonderfully made in Our image to live in the rest of their creative identity.

All that you are enjoying making through the creativity you are expressing is part of the reset and recalibration of your life for enjoyment.

So many of Our sons are not a good example to Our children because they are performance-driven and are not enjoying life.

We intended creation to be a joyous expression of I am that I am but following the path of independence has taken the joy out of creation.

The shift you are going through is restoring the creative joy to your heart and that is why your priorities are changing.

Son, as you have discovered by living in multiple dimensions, free from the restraints of time, you have all the time you need to do what your entire destiny mandates you to do.

So, just as you have felt the joy of My garden, feel the joy of your domain and be satisfied and really be content with your creative endeavours.

Son, never again go back to the old ways of working, which was lacking in real joy: look forward to being creative as an ascended father.

Creation is groaning to return to symbiotic union with the sons of God and that is reflected in what you feel in My garden.

Son, imagine the whole of the created order expressing the joy you have experienced in My garden and brood over it.

I went through the golden gates into the Cradle of Life to brood over what the Father had shown me. My whole being rested in that desire for restored union and I was already enjoying what I was contemplating as if it already existed in that quantum moment.

The chamber of destiny amplification and the chamber of creation excitement of the quantum lumens of reality were contained within that creative moment.

Son, now you are beginning to know true rest and enjoy a life of being.

Son, creation is waiting, looking and waiting for the sons of God to arise and shine with love's light to free it from its bondage to corruption.

That corruption is still present amongst most of Our children, so freeing them is a priority: but restoring what is deceiving them is the foundation for the harvest.

The atmosphere of the earth that influences the conditions and the people must be reclaimed and restored as it is principalities and powers that must make know the wisdom of God.

When the atmosphere is restored, the light can shine and the everlasting doors can be opened so the earth will not be covered in darkness, as it is now.

The global shield is protecting the earth and preparing it for atmospheric decontamination so the principalities, powers and rulers can be identified, targeted and restored.

The absence of light and love that you have detected shows you where to engage but it will require persistence to bring about the restoration process.

Once restored to their original position, they will cooperate with the Elementals to broadcast the frequencies of hope that will be received by those prepared by the global shift taking place.

Son, this will be the true firstfruits of the harvest you have been longing for; then heaven and earth will be in agreement and the full harvest can begin to be reaped.

The storehouses need to be ready, operating under heaven's government on the earth, creating garden environments for creation to thrive in restored union.

Son, the release of the blessing of limitless grace and overflowing mercy precede all that We have shown you.

The global awakening of consciousness to Our unconditionally loving nature is vital to prepare the harvest to receive the frequency that will unlock and reveal the truth of who We are and their identity as sons.

Son, keep legislating for the revealing of limitless grace for the outpouring of overflowing mercy that will raise the consciousness levels of those in bondage.

Son, brood over all that you have seen within the Cradle of Life to come into full agreement, union and harmony with Our intentions so that you can be one of the oracles that release the sound of many waters to shape and form reality in the Chamber of Creation.

The whole of creation is waiting and longing for the sons of God to be moved by its groaning enough to act responsibly.

Arise, shine with the glory of your sonship, to restore hope to all the dimensions that are beginning to awaken from the great deception.

Son, only living in a state of rest will enable all that you have seen to become reality: trusting in Our lovingkindness, despite all evidence to the contrary.

Live loved, love living and live loving in the rest of immortality.

Rest is the key to restoration, revelation and creativity.

Start to focus on your breathing, slowing it down, and start thinking of the name of God: YHWH.

Breathe in deeply and exhale slowly: Yod.

Breathe in: Hei; and out: Vav.

Repeat in Hei, out Yod, in Hei, and out Vav....

Be still and know that I am God.

I am love, I am joy, I am peace.

Invite love, joy and peace to flow in you and through you to create an atmosphere of rest around you.

You are in a safe place

Start to think of an open heaven and set your desire upon engaging wherever the Father takes you.
