

I am going to review some of the things that were key in 2020

I will share my journals; that will include:

What God said in 2020

What God did in 2020

What does that mean for 2021?

21st October 2020

Son, come into the realm of light.

I emerged through the dark cloud into the light of His presence and was drawn to look upon a facet of His face of such amazing beauty and intensity.

A desire for deeper intimacy gripped me so much so that I was consumed with passion for creation's restoration like I had never felt before.

Son, you are feeling what We feel towards all that we have created.

This intensity of desire is directed towards every one of Our children and towards every being.

Our love is not limited only to what you have thought is living but extends to everything We created.

You have felt the oracles of Our heart; now you have seen this facet of Our being, engage Our oracles again.

I turned my desire towards the oracles and was completely overwhelmed by the flood of intense emotions that hit me.

All that I felt before that had changed my life now felt insignificant compared to the passion, burning desire, intense joy, deep compassion, overwhelming love, union and blessing I now felt for all creation.

It was actually beyond a feeling, it had become being as I felt these intense emotions in every particle of who I am.

Son, now learn to focus the oracles and that facet of Our being that you now are towards different objects.

Beginning with Our children in the physical realm, focusing on each person and all their manifold diversity; then the spiritual beings in the heavenly realms and all their orders; then the fallen beings; then the dimensional beings; then the Elementals.

One by one I turned my attention towards each created category and immediately felt overwhelmed by love's passion, almost painful in its intensity.

The restoration of all those living things became the focus of my whole being, increasing in intensity until I thought I was going to explode.

Son, now you are to focus your thoughts towards creation: beginning with your world, the earth itself, the atmosphere, the core, the plates and continents; now the animals, birds, fish, insects, plants, trees; now all the elements in turn: air, waters, fire, earth and nature itself.

I felt such an affinity for each one, as part of a whole that makes up creation, itself a union of all the parts.

VISION DESTINY 2021 21

Son, now focus on the cosmos: each constellation, galaxy, nebula, black hole, solar system, planet, moon, asteroid.

Son, now focus inwards to the subatomic realm: beginning with molecules, then atoms, electrons, positrons, neutrons, quarks, gluons, bosons and continue until you engage the Quantum Lumens.

As I engaged with each it was like I was focused in a quantum moment that was their history from inception to birth and their whole existence became part of me.

Their history was now My history and their restoration was now my passion and consumed my being.

I ached with desire for the restoration of all things and felt creation's groaning more intensely than ever before.

I immediately went to the Cradle of Life and brooded with all my being, every particle pulsating with creative desire, but I felt I had to stay focused here until I felt a release to continue the creative process.

22nd October 2020

Son, today is a new day where because you entered the light of Our presence you have been transformed and your thinking has been renewed towards creation.

Open your physical, heart's and spirit's eyes and ears because you can now see and hear at a new level: all you have to do is focus your attention.

I tried, although I am not sure how successful I was.

The Father interrupted my musings.

Look and listen with intention towards all those areas that you engaged in true light and you will know more than you ever have before.

As soon as I focused on each in turn it was like I was tuned into a collective consciousness that was communicating on a wavelength that I had never experienced before.

It was communicating at a level of deep emotion, revealing its deepest desires in very different way: it was empathic at the deepest level.

The groan of creation was so deep and intense but also very different for the specific areas I was focusing on.

The elements revealed such conflict and deep anguish because of their division.

Their thoughts and emotions were like sighs of distress and pain but were also so conflicted over what they were doing.

In turn I felt the frequencies that were being communicated as they conveyed the deepest of primordial sentience.

My desire and intention began to focus on releasing frequencies of hope that would touch each of those areas of creation in a specifically relevant way.

VISION DESTINY 2021 21

I went back to focus consciously on where I am continually at rest in the Cradle of Life to brood with greater knowledge over the releasing of hope.

In each quantum moment, for each category of being and creation, I fast forwarded through the process until my desire for freedom matched the emotions I had felt, until the Quantum Lumens were activated and reality began to form.

I know at the deepest level of my being that creation will be set free from its bondage to corruption into a beautiful and glorious freedom and union.

It is our glorious freedom that will bring about such transformation.

I felt elated and overjoyed at what I knew to be confirmed and true reality even if it is still to fully play out in time and space.

These creation encounters have been deepening and getting more intense over the years.

26th October 2020

Son, creation is longing for the maturity of Our sons to be revealed so they can take responsibility for its freedom from its bondage to corruption.

The glory of Our sons displayed in all its manifold splendour will release the frequencies of rest that creation will respond to.

When you connect to creation at a deeper level the desire to take responsibility rises up.

Our sons living in the rest of true identity is the only thing that can set creation free from its lost identity so it can return to the union with man that it originally had.

The light of man's true glory will entrain the fallen and lost back to their restored states across all the dimensions of space and time.

Son, you know that time has no power over those who have been untethered from the death that moves to its rhythm.

Son, mankind must dance to another tune, free from the inevitability of death, as time marches on. Life is the conclusion, not death: so embrace the abundance of immortality, free from the bondage of sin and death.

Mankind is not destined to die but to live in glorious liberty and union; in limitless blessing, unrestrained by space and time.

Death has been abolished and life and immortality has been brought into the light to free mankind from the fear that has held it in bondage.

The angelic orders of Union, Liberty, Limitless and Blessing are at the disposal of those who have taken their place as part of the earth shield to help facilitate the restoration of all things agenda.

The frequency of hope and love being generated by the light of the earth shield is creating the atmosphere for restoration across all dimensions, not just the earth.

It is helping to facilitate the revealing of the great deception and a cosmic awakening.

The old orders are beginning to weaken and are losing their grip on the minds of men as the delusions and illusions of normalcy are being shattered.

Son, legislate for the removal and restoration of those behind the global agendas of the Babel-inspired systems of men for a false one world government of men and other beings.

Only restored sonship can bring the true dominion of the Kingdom of God world government that will fill the earth and expand beyond with peace.

This kingdom agenda has been mixed and confused by the great deception.

Son, brood strongly to release the reality of restored sonship and the true one cosmic government of Our Kingdom that mankind is destined to re-establish throughout the whole of creation.

All division being restored to union, all bondage being restored to liberty, all restrictions being restored to limitlessness and all curses being restored to blessing.

27th October 2020

Son, come walk with Me.

We engaged the throne of grace where sitting on the Father's lap I rested my head against His heart. Feeling the comforting rhythm of that safe beat of peace I rested waiting patiently but expectantly.

Son, as you dwell here continually, this is the source of grace and mercy that are limitless and free so become more consciously aware of this dwelling place.

Learn to draw on the limitlessness of grace and mercy, not just for yourself but for the whole of creation as it is in time of need.

The restoration of all things agenda needs grace in abundance and mercy beyond measure if creation is to be set free from the shame that it is feeling.

Son, shame keeps all things from receiving mercy and only overwhelming rivers of lovingkindness flowing from this throne through Our sons can remove that shame.

Son, shame is the fruit of independence, as creation became detached from the reality of Our true identity and Our lovingkindness.

Son, this throne of limitless grace and mercy is the source of the River of Life that flows through the Tree of Life.

This throne of limitless grace and mercy is the source and the foundation of all the Kingdom government that functions and of all true kingdom activity in heaven and on earth.

Son, make sure that all you think, say, do and are is motivated by limitless grace and mercy as they are the fullest expressions of the unconditional love that is who We are.

All judgment, justice and legislation must be made from the righteous foundation of this throne to perfectly express unconditional love.

All thrones take their position from this throne where intimacy and relationship is the priority and sets the tone for all government.

Son, now you know the vital importance of dwelling here, go beyond the dimensional portals and keep following the River of Life.

I had thought that the River of Life flowed to the throne of grace but it flows from it in multiple directions that I was only now aware of.

As I followed the river's flow it branched many times, creating streams that I know will need exploration, but for now I just kept following the main river.

I became aware of the essence of many places that I had previously felt only the frequencies of, so I continued; but now I just knew that there would be no end and final destination for this river.

There would be no end to the increase of the government and peace inspired by unconditional love expressed in limitless grace and mercy.

All realities and all ages are flowing from the wonderful dwelling place of pure intimacy, which is not just one place but is one expression of the circle of love that is I am that I am.

The eternal now, the realm of light in perfection, the Cradle of Life: all my most intimate places are just dimensional expressions of the same perichoresis of being.
The wonderful and amazing love relationship of I am that I am.

Son, you have discerned well but there is so much more that is still beyond your present capacity to understand, so keep journeying towards maturity.

The future implications were not clear to me but I now know that to dwell here is such an amazing blessing.

Son, now see everything, including your mandate, in relation to exposing history's greatest lies from your resting place here.

I know that you are hesitant to share what I have shown you concerning the Luciferian roots of the religious and political spirit agendas throughout history.

I certainly was and am hesitant as I am aware of the potential conflict it will probably cause.

Be bold and courageous to do your part and support others who have other roles to play in exposing the great deception.

Son, rest here and let perfect love remove all fear from you so you can rejoice as you release what I have shown you.

28th October 2020

Son, now you dwell on the throne of grace, the source of limitless grace and mercy, you have the capacity to release a higher frequency that carries Our unconditional love intentions beyond what you could imagine or think.

Reach out with your spirit's consciousness to creation and connect its desires in the groan to your desires for restoration.

As I expanded my mind, I felt more connected than ever before, at a deeper level of intimacy with creation, so that I was moved with greater compassion.

VISION DESTINY 2021 21

I felt luminous and radiant with the energy of hope for creation's freedom and I let it know that the sons of God are arising from their slumber.

I declared the truth that the sons of God are awakening to the truth.

I turned my attention to all the living beings throughout the dimensions of creation and released the declaration that "We are here for you." It was like a tidal wave of hope that nothing could hide from.

Wave after wave began to ripple out with greater energy and force, penetrating every barrier, void and dimension with overwhelming hope supplied by limitless grace light.

Son, keep brooding and creating the desire that forms the reality of restoration; have no doubts, no plan B, no other choices.

There can be no other option but Our desires being fulfilled, as that is the Tree of Life.

The restoration of all things message and agenda must be the passion of your life and its primary goal so you can be filled and overjoyed by the reality you choose when aligned to Our heart of love.

For the joy set before you will be your strength and that energy will enable you to endure, persevere and be persistent in the face of any and all opposition.

The results of restoration that you have seen will empower you, whenever things seem to be slow and progress seems to stand still, to press on.

Son, acceleration can come sometimes when you least expect it, so always be ready and expectant, filled with joyous hope because you have seen the end.

Love has won, is winning and will win because love is the most powerful force that exists; because everything lives and moves and exists within love.

There is nowhere that can escape Our love: no height, depth, width, breadth, realm or dimension can be separated from who we are.

In Him we live and move and exist, so separation is but an illusion.

All of creation is cocooned in Our lovingkindness and that will without any doubt restore all things back to Our benevolent intention.

Son, arise, shine love's light, filled with joy unspeakable and full of glory as you dwell here on the throne of grace, close to Our heart.

2nd November 2020

Son, there are three more significant and seismic global events coming over the next five years that will be part of the recalibration of global affairs.

The global awakening to love that is necessary for Our children to know the truth of who We are will be the outcome of this great resetting of cosmic proportions.

For the global control systems that currently have dominion over the economic, political, media, education, scientific and energy arenas to be replaced a series of great and powerful shakings must occur.

Son, you must be ready yourself and help prepare the Joshua generation in this transition period as it will destroy normalcy forever.

The coming shifts will expose the agendas of the Luciferian-controlled political and religious spirits that are behind world affairs.

History itself will need to be reset and recalibrated as the truth of the world governmental agendas of globalisation that have created the division and competition that fuels the conflict and tribalism are exposed to the light of truth.

The progress of the restoration of all things has been hindered as mankind's growth to maturity has been restricted and creation has been kept in bondage.

The destiny of mankind has been restricted by division and conflict.

As Our children are awakened to the truth, there will be a global protest movement against the globalist political and religious spirit agendas; this is necessary to throw off the shackles of control.

The world as you know it is coming to an end as you enter into the next age of Aquarius, which will be characterised by wave after wave of outpourings of unconditional love and limitless grace.

Our sons must rise up and come into the knowledge of the truth that will set them free from the religious spirits' great deception.

So many religious doctrines are at the heart of this deception that has programmed failure into their hearts.

The exposing of the great deception will send shock waves throughout the religious systems but these will be necessary to free Our children to become the sons of light, love and truth: that is their true inheritance.

The lies of the great deception have hoodwinked so many that they think that the agenda that they are following is the path of the Tree of Life when in reality it is the path of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

The doctrines and theologies of dispensationalism and futurism that have eschatologically deceived so many into believing the rapture, millennium and Zionism must be exposed to the light of truth.

The Luciferian Talmudic Jewish agenda that has infiltrated and politicised Christianity must be exposed and the one world government Babylonian agenda revealed.

The Hebrew roots movement is just the latest attempt to deceive more of Our sons into the following the same wrong path that inspired Babel.

Hebrew is not the language of heaven, as many are being taught: love is the true language.

Son, expose those agendas for what they really are so that Our sons can be free from the old religious systems to walk the ancient paths once again.

There was only union of spirit, soul and body in the beginning.

Hearts and minds in oneness.

VISION DESTINY 2021 21

Every doctrine that promotes division, dichotomy, and dualism is rooted in the same agenda of independence that separates Our children from true union.
Making a name for yourselves by denominating around beliefs is from the same source as Babel.

There is and has always only ever been one family of God and the establishing of the one new man in Christ is the fulfilment of all of Our promises and the core of the restoration of all things message. There was never any need for independent self-identity.

Son, you must prepare for the onslaught that is coming as you challenge these deceptions by staying in rest, living loved, loving living and living loving.
Only an awakening to unconditional love and limitless grace can free Our children and usher in the next age.

Rest is the key to restoration, revelation and creativity.
Start to focus on your breathing, slowing it down, and start thinking of the name of God: YHWH.
Breathe in deeply and exhale slowly: Yod.
Breathe in: Hei; and out: Vav.

Repeat in Hei, out Yod, in Hei, and out Vav.
Be still and know that I am God.
I am love, I am joy, I am peace.
Invite love, joy and peace to flow in you and through you to create an atmosphere of rest around you.

You are in a safe place
Start to think of an open heaven and set your desire upon engaging wherever the Father takes you.
