

VISION DESTINY 2021 23

I am going to review some of the things that were key in 2020

I will share my journals; that will include:

What God said in 2020

What God did in 2020

What does that mean for 2021?

12th November 2020

Son, let's walk together.

We began walking in the garden of my heart, following the path of the river of life, looking at the testimonies of my encounters.

The trees and bushes planted, tended and cultivated were bearing fruit; but some seemed to be more fruitful than others, so I enquired of the Father as to why.

Son, many of these testimonies are part of the fabric of your being and form your reality so are abundantly fruitful and continually in season, but others are still forerunner experiences that still need to become established in your life.

Son, there are things that you know and there things that you know that you know, as seen here as trees that bear the fruit of hopes fulfilled.

How do I know which experiences to establish first?

Son, that will become apparent as your journey continues to go beyond beyond in many ways that are multidimensional.

More multidimensional quantum moments will become part of your reality.

We continued walking until we came to our secret place of rest, where there were more tapestries that I did not recognise.

These are the adventures you have ahead of you. You have absorbed the light of these realities as you have looked into My face and you will be drawn to them when the time is right.

I sat on my swing and silently the Father just pushed me but I felt a deeper assurance than ever before of just being.

I felt like I could just be forever as waves of approval, affirmation and contentment rolled over me, taking me deeper into the rest of being.

From that place of pure satisfaction visions of being filled my mind; not in a chaotic jumble but ordered to the rhythm of the Father pushing me.

In this place of being within myself, past, present and future merged into one as the timelines of my destiny played out in my mind.

Maybe this was one version of possible future realities but nevertheless I was just being, on a swing, within the secret place of the garden of my heart, enjoying being with my Dad.

It felt like a new chapter of existence had just been opened.

16th November 2020

Son, just as I am, so can you be. We are all that you need, so you can be all We intend: a limitless being made in Our image.

The secret key to being is resting in Us as all you need is found within your relationship with Us – but so many do not know who We are.

The agenda of the religious and political spirit that fronts the Luciferian-controlled systems has perverted and twisted the perception of who We are so Our children do not know Us.

Son, this why an awakening of global consciousness to love is so vital to the restoring of the identity of Our children, so they can be who they were intended to be within I am.
Being at rest in being brings freedom from performance.

The great deception hides who We are under the covering of darkness masquerading as light; but the light of love is shining brightly through those of Our sons who are encountering Us face to face.

The light of love that is shielding the Earth is beginning to penetrate the darkness to usher in an age of enlightenment such as has never been seen before.
The frequency of love is raising the frequency of the Earth to resonate so a field of entrainment can reveal the truth.

The light of truth will expose the darkness of the great deception so Our children can escape the hoodwinking of independence that has created the illusion of distance and separation from Us.

The Intimacy of a restored relationship is the only antidote to this deception and the delusional infection that has infiltrated mankind.
Only an awakening to unconditional love and limitless grace is capable of both revealing who We are and exposing the great deception through enlightenment.

Son, the Luciferian agenda of the Hebrew roots movement and theology that has infected the mystic movement is now in the open so the conversations can now take place.
The mixing of covenants has polluted the strength and purity of the new covenant fulfilment of all of Our promises in Jesus the Truth.

The lovingkindness of the new covenant cannot be mixed with the legalistic religious systems at all, as any works-based thinking creates separation and performance orientation.

The agenda of DIY-tree-inspired Luciferian thinking is to introduce a layer of insulation between Our children and Us that outworks through any form of mediation.
The only mediator Our children need to engage Us in intimacy is Jesus, the only Way to the Father.

We are completely available for intimacy and face to face relationship. Any need for any mediator is a deception and the Hebrew roots movement is just another in a long line of false theologies and doctrines.

The new covenant is the final and complete fulfilment of all other covenants and promises, so never look back to the old but fully embrace the lovingkindness of the new.
Any system that puts conditions on relationship with Us is part of the Luciferian agenda to separate and divide.

VISION DESTINY 2021 23

Son, demonstrate the truth of unconditional love and limitless grace to expose this deceptive agenda so Our children can become who they are intended to be: mature sons of light, love and truth.

Creation itself is longing for the sons of God to arise and be revealed in their glorious splendour, awakened to their true identity of being within I am that I am.
It is finished and complete: there is no further work to be done, just rest in that reality.

Son, the new creation one new man in Christ is not a mixture of old and new covenants. There are no distinctions at all! Not Jews and Gentiles, Black and White, First and Third World: just all Our children together, as one manifold family.

We do not see any diversity which separates, just the beautiful creativity and expression of the uniqueness of all of creation that reflects Our manifold oneness.
Son, be proud of your unique identity and celebrate the uniqueness of all others.

17th November 2020

Son, a storm is brewing over the great deception but you must live in the eye of the storm so that you are not blown off course by intimidation and opposition.

Many will gather together to oppose the truth and try to maintain the lie but as the global awakening to love gathers pace the light will expose the darkness.
Always stand firm and demonstrate love at all times in all situations.

Keep a loving and forgiving attitude towards those who will stand against you so you do not oppose them personally.
The challenges to the global control systems that perpetrated the web of deceit that the world is under will allow the great deception to be exposed.

We will continue to strengthen the Earth shield and the light of truth will shine brighter so the frequency of truth will entrain many more into resonant agreement.
Truth will always expose the lies and deceptions when the light shines.

Son, call for Union to challenge division and Covenant to challenge competition so peace can overcome conflict to end tribalism and return all to mystic union.
The union of Our manifold family has always been Our desire.

The blessing of union is very powerful; and when hearts are joined together, minds will follow to become one with the mind of Christ.
The Tree of Life is the place of peace and union which starts within Our children to end the conflict and separation of spirit, soul and body.

When more of Our children are at rest within, they will be able to be in union of heart and mind without; and the reality of I am will begin to manifest.
True reality is the knowledge by experience of the mystic union where We live within you and you live within Us.

Creation itself is waiting for the manifestation of the mystic union as revealed in the light of sonship so it can be set free from its bondage to corruption.

True union will end decay and entropy as it releases the power of love, joy and peace to bring hope for complete restoration.

The unified message of the restoration of all things is the hope for creation, so division must be overcome by love's light. So legislate strongly that the exposing of the great deception will not create more division.

Son, you will need the Law of Mystic Union to mandate your authority to overcome division as the light exposes the darkness.

I went to the court of kings, where I saw much more activity than usual because the sons of God are maturing in governmental authority.

I felt uncomfortable as I acknowledged to myself that I was unprepared to create this law. So I consciously went back into the realm of light to gaze upon the face of God for deeper understanding of the mystic union.

I looked at the limitless facets and manifoldness that are manifested in the perichoresis of Father, Son, and Spirit and I saw union differently than in the brooding process I previously went through. The essence of mystic union is God: Father, Son, and Spirit.

Union's focus was not just a concept to overcome division but a complete state of being that is the manifestation of a unified creation within I am that I am.

Union is God and the thought that manifested from the light of the face of God gave me the confidence to create the Law of Mystic Union.

I went to the Cradle of Life to brood over union. This time there was no division to overcome; as the creative process played out in that quantum moment, everything became clear and in focus. This is the mystic union where there is no concept of division.

I went back to the Court of Kings and sat at the bench, a scroll before me, and the Law of Mystic Union flowed from my heart.

Context:

The mystic union is the essence of I am that I am.

Permissions:

18th November 2020

I engaged with Wisdom who took me through a door on her heights to a large crystal cave that was an amazing sight.
It felt familiar, although I could not access any memory of being there before.

The walls of the cave were resplendent, shimmering with iridescent colours beyond description, that on closer inspection were diamonds that were radiating the light and energy, sparkling with each facet, different colours and frequencies.

What are these diamonds? I asked.

What is this place and where is it?

I was full of questions as I was not aware of ever being there before but knew I was connected to that place in some way.

These diamonds are the destiny scrolls of those of the next age who are yet to be born and this place is connected to the Chamber of Destiny and the Chamber of Creation and is called the Chamber of Assignment.

Why are you showing it to me? I asked

You have a mandate to equip the next generation, some of who are yet to be born, so it is important that you feel the energy and light of their destinies before they are conceived.

What happens after they are conceived and born?

Their spirits are assigned and they become living beings but their scrolls are hidden from their souls' knowledge until their relationship with the Father is restored.

Why?

If their souls were able to access their scroll they would try to fulfil it from the knowledge of the DIY tree so the scroll can only be presently accessed by their spirit.

Their angel in heaven administrates their scroll from their mountain throne position to help bring them to the point of realisation of their salvation.

I stopped asking questions and began to engage my being with the light of the scrolls, of which there were billions.

My emotions were moved by the oracles of the Father's heart towards each as I stretched a quantum moment for some of the scrolls so I could call forth their destiny.

Each scroll that I was drawn to seemed to sing to me, drawing me to it by the unique beauty of its frequency.

Wisdom looked at me, knowing that I was feeling overwhelmed, and said "Those whom you have called will be drawn by your frequency to connect with you and the Engaging God programme once their destiny is awakened."

I was humbled by that thought as I pondered the responsibility I was given.

Then it dawned on me that my spirit had been here before, when I had engaged Enoch behind the waterfall of the sound of many waters.

The first quest that I remembered receiving in 2012 after my dark cloud experience and seeing the face of God in the realm of light in perfection was to remove the masks from people.

A mask is a distorted image that hides true identity.

This quest was always a mystery to me, but releasing the blue light call and establishing the Engaging God programme were part its fulfilment that I am now aware of.

Now I know that engaging the Chamber of Assignment was another aspect.

I thanked Wisdom and asked, why now?

It is important that those who will be under deception will be able to resonate with the light of truth that you have attached to their scrolls when they engage with you.

This is why there is so little opposition from those who have been drawn to you to the revelation that you release which would otherwise be rejected.

Your destiny is entwined with others through this process.

Your vision destiny teaching series carry the sound that connects because the frequency it carries causes their spirit and scroll to resonate.

Keep calling forth the destinies of those who will connect and legislate for the sound and light to reach those who will respond.

19th November 2020

I returned with Wisdom to the Chamber of Assignment. I turned to look behind me and some of the iridescent walls filled with diamond destinies were slightly dulled and seemed tarnished.

I looked closer at the scrolls of destiny that were diamonds and saw that each facet was sparkling with different colours and frequencies.

I asked Wisdom what were these and why were they duller?

As the soul gets damaged by life and trauma, so their destiny gets more disconnected and tarnished in the hearts and minds of those fragmented broken children who become disillusioned by life.

She said, "These are those living today, some of whom are still yet to realise their inclusion in Jesus and some who already have but they are still in the process of the deconstruction and renewal of their minds."

I then knew that my spirit had been here before and I had spoken into some of those destinies and I have already connected with some of them.

Some physical and some spiritual connections are already established.

Son, now you know it is important that that you legislate to activate those frequencies and call people to come into connection.

I released the sound to call those still ignorant of their salvation to come to the light and also to call those who do believe out of the wilderness of religion.

I issued another blue light call and I saw some of the diamond destinies begin to sparkle and shine. Wisdom said, "You can return here to see the progress and continue activating destinies to begin the process of maturity into sonship.

"You can call to children to captivate their hearts and minds before they lose their connection with their destiny so that there will be a whole generation that rise to destiny as children."

I began to make the connection with the Law of Mystic Union and what I had just experienced in the Chamber of Assignments.

I was filled with the passion of the Father's heart for the liberation of His children.

I began to legislate, sending the frequency of my declaration to target those specifically whose scrolls I have previously engaged, to help remove the masks of deception that have robbed them of their true identity within the mystic union.

I call for the union of body, soul and spirit within God's children within I am to reveal mystic union and remove the masks of deception to reveal their true identity and destiny.

I call for the mystic union of man within the perichoresis of Father, Son, and Spirit.

I call for the light of truth to resonate and reveal the truth of the reality of the union of being.

I call for the reality of the mystery of deeper union with creation to be revealed.

I call for the union of heart and mind within the mind of Christ.

I call for deeper union within the global love awakening.

I call for the release of the frequencies of union creation mandates to awaken the living union within all things.

I call for the light of truth to awaken the desire for the mystery of union with the elements of creation.

I call for the light of truth to awaken the primordial connection to the Elementals within the children of God.

I call for the light of truth to unify the dimensions and all beings within the mystic union.

I call for the light of truth to unveil the mystic union to overcome division within the process of exposing the great deception.

I call for the masks of deception exposed to the light of truth to be removed and the scrolls of destiny assignments to be revealed.

23rd November 2020

Son, those who are in denial when faced with the truth have been influenced by the political spirit and have taken their eyes off Me to believe the conspiracies of deception.

Release mercy on them. For some, this will be a turning point on their journey to discover the deception that keeps them following the DIY tree in the hope that the political system can save the world.

Son, there is the truth that is veiled from others by the accusation of conspiracy and there are lies that are believed and accepted because others call them conspiracies. Some are deceived because they think there is no smoke without fire.

Son, there is the Truth and there are lies presented as the truth so only accept the truth that comes directly from the Truth; then you will be able to resonate with what is genuine and reject that which is not.

Son, do not humiliate those who have been deceived to believe lies: show them mercy so they can humble themselves and be restored.

Do not mock those who are drawn to conspiracy theories, as they are searching for truth.

There will be much disappointment as the lies are exposed and many hearts will be sick and that will open many to even further deception if hope is not released for a greater purpose.

Son, the restoration of all things agenda is the only message that can stir that hope, so legislate for the hope of the bigger picture to inspire those who have or will become disillusioned.

When the dawn of a new age is about to break, there is always an abundance of deceptive lies that offer hope as the false securities of the old systems are being shaken.

Shine brightly with the light of love so limitless grace can inspire the hope that will bring freedom from the insecurity that darkness brings.

Son, there are always those who fail to embrace the new age of light and truth, preferring to hold on to the lies of the old, but do not give up on them as they are precious to Us.

There will be a transition, even when the next age has begun, for those to come out of the old; so be gracious to those who lag behind.

Son, as you live in the light of truth there will be so much more enlightenment to come that is beyond your present ability to understand.

Keep engaging multi-dimensional truth so you can live in a state of being with an expanded consciousness, so you can continue to be transfigured and transformed into a mature son and ascended father.

As I engaged the realm of light and gazed on the splendour and wonder of the face of God, I saw a smile that filled me with great joy and gave me strength like I had never felt before.

That smile gave me so much confidence that all was well and in the realm of perfection all was as it should be.

All the darkness of deception that sometimes feels too heavy to bear is but a moment compared to the joy that is to come.

Son, be encouraged and strengthened by the joy of life that is the light of perfection that shines greatest when the burden of living in the transition is heavy.

Son, remember you are yoked to Us so We can carry the weight and burden, so be joyful.

I released the light that I had absorbed as a burst of hope to call all who will become disillusioned to resonate with the light of truth so that hope fulfilled will reconnect them to the Tree of Life.

The more light I experience, the more passionate about exposing the great deception I feel.

The deception is keeping the children of God from their identity of being and hindering the restoration of all things process.

Let's engage rest for revelation of the light of truth.

Rest is the key to restoration, revelation and creativity.

Start to focus on your breathing, slowing it down, and start thinking of the name of God: YHVH.

Breathe in deeply and exhale slowly: Yod.

Breathe in: Hei, and out: Vav.

Repeat in Hei, out Yod, in Hei, and out Vav.

Be still and know that I am God.

I am love, I am joy, I am peace.

Invite love, joy and peace to flow in you and through you to create an atmosphere of rest around you.

You are in a safe place

Start to think of an open heaven and set your desire upon engaging the Father's heart.

Engage the realm of light to experience the light of love and truth at a deeper levels of being.
